(From Potres and Ballads of Goetho, in Blackwood. THE TREASURE SEEKER.

Every man is more or less a treasure seekerhater of labor until he has received the important with, that labor alone can bring content and happi There is an affinity, strange as it may appear between those whose let in life are the most exalted, and the haggard, hollow-eyed wretch who prowls incesartly around the crumbling rains of the past, in the forward with despatch. They are also prepared to belief that there lies beneath their mysterious founda-Kingdom to prepare passengers for the voyage. Persons residing at a distance can, by writing to either of tions a mighty treasure, over which some jeulous dewoo keeps watch for evermore.

Many weary days I suffor'd, Sick of heart and poor of purse; Riches are the greatest blessing—Poverty the deepest curse! Till at least to dig a treasuro

Forth I went into the wood-"Fiend! my soul is thine forever!" And I sign'd the scroll with blood, Then I drew the magic circles,

Kindled the mysterions fire. Placed the herbs and bones in order, Spoke the incantation dire. And I sought the buried metal With a snell of mickle might-Sought it as my master taught me; Black and stormy was the night.

And I saw a light appearing In the distance, like a star; When the midnight hour was tolling, Came it waxing from afar: Came it flashing, swift and sudden,

As if fiery wine it were, Flowing from an open chalice. Which a beauteous boy did bear. And he bore a histrous chaplet. And his eyes were full of thought, As he stepped into the circle,

With the radience that he brought. And he bade me taste the goblet; And I thought-"It cannot be, That this boy should be the bearer Of the demon's gifts to me!"

"Taste the draught of pure existence Sparkling in this golden urn, And more with baneful magic Shalt thou hitherward return. Do not dig for treasure longer; Let the future spell-word be Days of labor, nights of resting;

So shall peace return to thee!

CERTIFICATES.—Letter, from the Hon. Ab'h'm M'Clet-ian, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress Washington, July 3d, 1838. Sir—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One I my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Ca.onbell county essee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed if very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your sgent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazweil, East Ten Bessee, I have no doubt but if you had agents im everal counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medi-cine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should line hear from you whether you would like an agent at Bluntville, Sullivan County East Tennessec; I can get ome of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.
