EPITAPII ON AN ENGINEER .- FOUND IN GRAVETARD IN ENGLAND. My engine now is cold and still, No water does my boiler fill; My coke affords its flames no more, My days of usefulness are o'er. My wheels dany their wonted speed. No more my guiding hand they heed; My whistle too has lost its tone, Its shrill and thrilling notes are gone; My valbes are now thrown open wide, My flanges all refuse to glide; My clacks, also, though once so strong, Refuse to gid the busy throng. No more I feel each urging breath. My steam is now condensed in death; Life's railway's o'er, each station's past-In death I'm stopt, and rest at last-

In Christ I'm safe-in Him I sleep. A Cass for the Phrenologists .- The intelligent Algerine who edits the "Providence Relater," is favored with a wonderful organ of hope, and is among the most determined of those who cling to the falling fortunes of the coon. These were his expectation resterday, after hearing from 45 counties in Pennsyl

"We expect to get New York, but we also expect to elect Mr Clay if we do not get it. We expect to carry Virginia, but we also expect to elect Mr Clay We expect to carry Maine, but we also expect to choose our president without it. We shall not give up Pennsylvania until we are obliged to by the figures of the returns. There are a good many counties to come in yet, and the further west you go in Pennsylvania, the more whig the people grow."

This really surpasses the spirit of the antediluvian who is reported to have said to Noah. "go to thunder with your old ark -I don't believe there's going to be much of a shower after all!!" He expects to Clay without New York, Virginia, or Maine, and will not give up Penn-ylvania! yet his hopes are in no respect less reasonable or more indefinite than are those few days, have been throwing away their money in betting upon the general result.—Boston Patriot.

REV. ROBERT BREE, B. D.

REV. BAMERL WILLIAMS,

Sir_Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and saits. your hysperic meanine with manual respect, One faction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Canbell county. of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Calibonic county. Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you combinion from he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville ccunty, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, Bust Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Bluntville, Sullivan County East Tennesser; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully, ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee. For sale Wholesate and Retail, by R. E SELLERS, Agent.
