our societies in New Lebanon and Watervilles, we think it but justice to state, that we consider it a valuable improvement in the healing art. Its power in realising both chronic and abute inflamation, also in removing spastus, is certainly very great. In cases of obstructed perspiration, it is unquestionably the safest and best remedy that we have ever seen. Several persons in our society, who were scarcely free from a catarrhal effection during most of the winter months TAS just received a large supply of New York and Bultimore Spanish Sole Leather, Upper Leather, using the Bath a few times; and the predisposition of the winter mobile for several years past, have found permanent relief by thindelphia and Country Kips and Callakins.
