WHITE & BROTHER, have removed from No. 92 to 76 Market street, between the Diamond and 4th street, to the store formerly occupied by Geo, R.	was a pleasing cheerfulness in their countenances, and a healthy hue in their complexions. They are, we understand 22 and 24 years of age, Greenhalgh being the senior, though they appear to be several years older. Gildersleeve was dressed as before in silk cap, under shirt, drawers, socks, and light sheer, being thus clothed from head to foot; his countenance is hard and rugged, and it bears the marks of age, though he has not yet arrived at that period which is designated the prime of life. The Indian ran in a light costume peculiar to his tribe, and the other run- ners varied but little from those above mentioned.— There was an evident determination on the part of Barlow to sacrifize no advantage in the race, and a false start was the consequence. He returned how- ever, immediately, and they all got off well togeth- er—Gildersleeve, Barlow, Greenhalgh and the Indi- en taking front places. The first mile was accom- pliched in five minutes and ten seconds, Barlow being first, the Indian second—Smith, Gildersleeve, Green- halgh, Taylor, Carles and M'Cabe in a cluster at a short distance; the other tailed off. The second mule was performed by Barlow in about the same time as the first, but at a greater distance from the Indian, who was slightly in advance of Gildersleeve, Green- halgh, Taylor and M'Cabe. Jackson, Underhill, and Carles at more respectful distances in the rear, the latter at this point abandoning the contest. At the close of the third mile Barlow had still fur- ther increased the distance between him and dian, who had also left a greater space between him and Gildersleeve and Greenhalgh who ran in compa- ny. McCabe was within a reasonable distance, and arlow first at the same extraordinary pace as that with which he set out, by which be gradually gained on the ten mile time—six minutes from the Judge's tash. The Indian ran alone with vigorous ease. Gildersleeve and Greenhalgh came afterwards, still in company; McCabe followed; Taylor was at a grea-
