PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26. " Honor to Henry Clay .- The friends of Mr Clay In this city are perhaps the most ardent and devoted of all that great statesman's friends in the whole Union.

Our mechanics and manufacturers are preparing numerous splendid presents to Mr Clay and Mrs Clay, and the ladics are raising a fund to present him with a service of silver, which is so cost several thousand dollars. A proposition has now also been started to raise a fund, by subscription, to purchase "Moun Vernon," the home of Washington, which is offered for salo, to be presented to Mr Chay, as a sign of regard which shall have some relation to the depths and extent of the feeling entertained by the donors."

We clip the above from a letter from Philadelphia to the Baltimore Sun. One would suppose, in reading it, that the whigs supported Mr Clay and that he I am at present engaged in letting the water into sought the Presidency, only that he might be able to
