THE SCOTCH GLAST AND GLANTESS .--- These sur prising specimens of humanity may be seen at Ows-TOB's EAGLE HOTEL, in Third street. They are as remericable for their good looks, as for their magnificont proportions. The wonder excited by their un. usually large size, is increased by contrasting them with Gen Tom THUME, who travels with them, and seems like the prince of the diminutive race. See advetisement in another column.

POLE BALL.—This affuir came off on Monday night, coording to arrangement. It was attended by a large gamber of our young Democratic friends and not a according to arrangement. It was attended by a large pumbre of our young Democratic friends and not a fow of the good-natured come "sported a toe," at the celebration of their own defoat. We understand that ene of them, in the exuberance of good feeling ocessioned by the attractions of the Ball, was heard to her regular daily trips, leaving Pittsburgh (as hereto-s, y that he was not sorry for Clay's ill-success, since tore) at 3 o'clock. P. M., and Beaver at S, A. M.

it had produced such pleasing results. J----s said the whigs who danced so much were soxious to make the most they could out of "de feet."

GEO. DURK .- This man, who was convicted a short wine since, of the murder of JOHN ANDERSON, tollkeeper at the upper bridge, received the sentence of the law for murder in the first degree, yeaterday morning. We are told that efforts will be made to ob Guard. tain a pardon for him, by his friends.
