Mr. R. DONAVAN—Sir: I have in use one of Hather's Marson House, Stoves, which I got from you last Spring. It affords me much pleasure to recommend it for its excellence. So far as my knowledge extends, I have no hesitation in saying it is the best stove now in use. I need not particularize its merits, 14 would advise all disposed to possess an article of the kind, to adopt the best method of satisfying thempselves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt Mr. R.
