The Lament of "that same Old Coon." Tune-Lament of the Irish Emigrant. I'm sitting on the rail, Harry,

Where we sat that fine day,
When all the Whigs at Baltimore, Threw up their hats for Clay; The election then went gloriously. And the coons sang loud and high, And you thought you'd be elected, Harry,

I saw it in your eye.

The world is little changed, Harry, It stands as firm as then; The Yankee boys have thrown their votes, And kone to work again.
And they've left you still at Ashland, Harry, With your negroes fat and sleek.
And the words of hope are words, Harry,

That you no more will speak. 'Tis not unto the espitol; And the white house stands quite near, Where you thought to find anug quarters, Ha With your twenty-five a year. But Saltriver rolls between us, Harry, And just now 'tis very high; Alas! we've neither bridge ner boat,

And can't get over dry. I'm in a peck of trouble Harry, For the party's running down; And we've little left to brag of now, But our old days of renown. You were our life and soul, Harry,

Of all the men the man; If you could not be chosen, Harry, Where is the Whig that can? You played your part right well, Harry,

And still kept boasting on, Amidst disasters and deleats, When the party's hope was gone; You he'er a duel better fought, When your overseer eye
Glanced back defiance on the foe Whom you had doomed to die.

But we're most sadly beaten. Harry, And my heart is fit to break, When I think of those who electioneered For the loaves and fishes' sake; And when I think of you, Harry, I'm filled with woe and pain-; Alas! you are so old a man, You can't be run again.

I can't stand this another day, I've served you eight long years,
'Till the fur is all-olipped off my hide,
By the Locofoco shears; And through my skin my bones stick out, I am a woful sight; No honest coon that steals his corn,

Was e'er in such a plight. Good bye, I'm off-but in the woods I'll sit and shut my eyes, And think of all the tricks we used, The forgeries and lies; And I'll think I see the self-same rail Before you were a used up man, Poor fallen Harry Clay.

GREAT DISCOVERY in the HEALING ART.

A strong and undoubted evidence of its worth, is to be found in the high degree of popular favor which it has received since its introduction into the West. Wherever an agency has been opened for its sale, and therever it has received a fair and honest trial, it has become firmly established as a STANDARD FAMILY MEDICINE.

It is rapidly superseding the use of the many nostrums, which have so long imposed upon the community, which have obtained their name only by puffing and braggadocia, and which are now destined to be thrown saide to make way for the best cough medicine of the present age. It is not pretended that it will positively cure every case of the disease, for which it is designed, but it is honestly believed that in every case where it gets a fair chancu it will effect a cure. Caming, then, before the people with the highest recommendations, it is at least, worthy of a trial by all who are afflicted with any of that large and dangerous class of diseases.

ISAAC HARRIS, WARRANTED GENUINE -- Dr. William Evans's Camomile Pilis, Centificates.—Letter, from the Hon. Ah'h'm M'Clet-

ian,Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Memberof Congress
Washington, July 3d, 1838.
Sir—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satis-faction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One f my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Cambell county 'enneasce, wrote to me to send him some, which I dis and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent it Tennessee. If so, I would recompend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he in willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knozville county, Tennos-see, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, East Tennerace. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medi-cine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Biontville, Sullivan County, East Tennesser; I can ges ome of the merchants to act for you as I live near there ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tensessee.
