IN LARGE AND SMALL REGS,

WHITMORE & WOLFF,

OUR RELATIONS WITH MEXICO. We have taken advantage of a leisure hour to peruse the correspondence which has been carried on at Mexico between Gov Shannon and Senor Refun; the Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs, in regard to the invasion of Texas. It is very evident that a crisis in

The correspondence was opened by Governor Shan-non, in a letter dated Oct 14, written with clearness the invasion is ordered to be carried out. On the first point, he argues that Texas is independent de facto point, he argues that Texas is independent de facto and has been for eight years; that she has been ac-knowledged as such by three of the great powers of the world; and that, putting these considerations aside, she became independent when the constitution of 1824, under which she was a separate and sould member of inder which she was a separate and equal member of the Confederation, was everthrown by force of arms. Just received at the office of the "Post."

the Confederation, was everthrown by force of arms. Upon that event she foll back upon her original rights as a distinct and independent State, and has ever since maintained her position against every effort of Mexico. She therefore has a right to treat for a surrender of territory to the United States, or for annexations and the United States have a right to treat with her bath CHEAP HARDWARE. 4 the United States have a right to treat with her, both Corner of Liberty and St. Clair Sts., Pittsburgh being independent nations & Mexico knows that they
