A Catting Answer .- At a whig meeting in Ten messee, during the late canvass, the Hon. John Bell, after having extolled Mr Clay as the greatest living man, sneeringly asked who James K Polk was. A gentleman at the meeting immediately remarked, that it was the same James K Polk who beat one John Bell for Speaker of the House of Representatives, in 1834. Dear Sir—Having had occasion to witness the eff fect of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy on Mr Eli Young in a case of Pulmonary Consumption, I felt it my duty to make a brief statement in order that others that are or may be afflicted with the same complaint may be benefitted by the same remedy.

Ho was attacked with inflammation in the left lobe of the lungs in March 1843, attended with scute pain, great difficulty of breathing, and a severe cough, which roceded rapidly to suppuration: and not withstanding the use and application of the best remedies prescribed by our authors, the complaint in a few days began to exhibit evident symptoms of ulceration. In this distressing stage of the complaint, I had recourse to Dr Dancan's Expectorant Remedy for conimmption, which had the effect of checking the discase immediately, and in a few days the pain ceased, the breathing became free and easy, the cough left him, and the expectoration subsided, the consequences of which was that in using six bottles he has recovered his health, and is restored to his family. I do hereby certify the above to be true statement of my case as far as comes within my knowledge.

Medicated Vapor Bath. A LETTER FROM DRS. LAWRENCE AN

HENRICKSON. New Lebanon, State of New York. WORTHY FRIEND:—Having made a thorough trial of the Medicated Vavor Bath for four months past, in our societies in New Lebanon and Watervliet, we think it but justice to state, that we consider it a valuable improvement in the healing art. Its power in reducing both chronic and acute inflamation, also in removing spasms, is certainly very great. In cases of ob structed perspiration, it is unquestionably the safest and best remedy that we have ever seen. Several catarrhal affection during most of the winter months for several years past, have found permanent relief by using the Bath a few times; and the predisposition t take cold, as it is commonly termed, seems to be wholly removed. Obstructed perspiration, is certainly in our changeable climate, one of the most fruitful sou ces of disease, and any remedy that is canable of r moving the predisposition to it, must be considered a great blessing to mankind; and as such we do not hesi tate to recommend the Medicated Vapor Bath.
