PITTSBURGH, PA.

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 13, 1844. LORENZO; OR THE EMPIRE OF RELIGION: By Scotch non-Conformist.—This is the title of an extremely neat little volume, recently issued from the proces of Mr John Murphy. The typography is faultless, and the embellishments and binding are most su perb. The contents of this volume are highly interesting and will be perused with much pleasure by those who have a taste for such reading. It is for sale at the Bookstore of Mr Quigly, 5th st.

THE CHILD'S PRAYER BOOK, from the same press, is also for sale by Mr Quigley. This is a very useful little book in teaching children the first principles of religion, and for this purpose we would commend it to the attention of all parents.

It may be remarked, as a an agreeable coincicca s, that the Hon John Savage, the estimable presiding officer of the Convention, at Albany, on Tuesday ard Wednesday, gave an electoral vote forty years ago for Thomas Jefferson. He was the youngest elector in the college of 1804, and was appointed the Messenget, to bear the vote of the State of New York. [N Y News.

Miller's Mansion House, Sept, 19, 1844. Mr. R. Donavan-Sir: I have in use one of Hath away's Hot Air Cooking Stoves, which I got from you last Spring. It affords me much pleasure to recommend it for its excellence. So far as my knowledge extends, I have no hesitation in saying it is the best stove now in use. I need not particularize its merits but would advise all disposed to possess an article of the kind, to adopt the best method of satisfying them selves, that is, to try it; and I doubt not they will be D. R. MILLER.

Washington Temperance House, Pittsburgh, Sept. 19, 1844. Mr. R. Donavon-Sir:-I have had in use for five ths, one of Hathaway's Hot Air Cooking Stoves, and I have no hesitation in saving it is the hest stove now in use. The various kinds of cooking it is calcu ated to do at the same time, and the small quantity of fuel required, makes it an object worthy the atten tion of all who desire a good stove THOMAS VARNER.

I embrace this opportunity to recommend the dot Air Cooking Stoves; I have used the one you put up for me constantly all summer, and I must say it is a grand article. I believe it is superior to any other stove now in use in this city. The oven bakes well, and is large enough to bake four large loaves of bread at one time; it also cooks very speedily, and it requires very little coal, I think them worthy the attention of al who wish a good stove; to such I would say, try them and prove what they are.
