Democratic Festival in Allegheny City. | Charles Wailace: James K Polk; he does not need The Daily Morning Post. POLK, DALLAS and SHUNK, met at the house of Mr.

JANES CARSON, for the purpose of congratulating each other and the Democracy of the county, upon the result of the recent election. After enjoying the bountiful supper furnished in the usual good taste of their host, WM. KARNS, Esa. ninted President of the meeting, Capt. VAL

ENTINE SHORT, and R. A. CAMPBELL, Esq., Vice Presidents, Juhn M. Snowden, jr., and John Coyle. wire appointed Secretaries. The following Toxists were then offered and drank with eathusiasm: 1. The Victory we colebrate: A grand moral tri-ump of the people over the frauds and schemes of the epublican principles. It is the surest enemies of guaranty that the glorious heritage bequeathed by the Fathers of the country, will not be squandered by her 2. James K. Polk, President Elect : Although not known to the Whigs, a majority of the States, a majority of the electors, and a majority of the people have deemed him worthy to fill the most dignified nolitical station on earth-the highest place in the confidence of a free people. 3. George M. Dallas: His learning, talents, and rience will shed lustre on the station he great experience will shed lustre on the station he has been called to fill by the popular vote of the country. 4. Francis R. Shunk: The "best abused man" in the Commonwealth. The slunders of his enemies have but served to draw the affections of his friends more closely around him. His triumphant election the calumnies uttered against him. Thomas Jefferson: The principles taught by this Buther of Democracy, will never be forgotten by its

6. Andrew Jackson: The Soldier and Statesman. who on the field of battle and in the councils of the mation, struggled so honorably and perilled so much terests. to defend the country; and to preserve the liberties of

*-

George Spangler: Thomas Phillips, Esq; iflong and THOS. PHILLIPS & WH. H. SMITH, EDITORS. earnest devotion to the Democratic cause may emitte a PITISBURGH, WEDNESDAX, DECEMBER 18 the Post Office already sure. John P Thompson: Captain Jacob Ziegler, Editor Tax TARIPF.-In their efforts to spread distrus f the Butler Herald; his untiring efforts in behalf of among their follow-citizens, the more bitter of the Democratic principles, entitle him to higher honors. George R Pearson: Wilson M'Candless, Esq; a danger there is, that Col Pork's administration will.

shining light in the cause of Democracy-may this light never be hid under a bushel; but may it soon countenance the destruction of the Tariff policy.hine with its wonted brilliancy in the Senate of the The numerous and constantly increasing evidences of United States. A Barclay, Esq: Charles Wallace: the lead koree of the Allegheny Democracy. No danger of a stall with a "Constoga" in the harness. With a "Constoga" in the harness. With a "Constoga" in the harness. Mar How-the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the wanten faisity of these assertions, would seem to the set of t with a "Conestoga" in the harness. Samuel Dullauns: George R Riddle; one of our contemners of truth are so uncessing, that some nain pillars in Democracy. He will be elevated high- nutice of their operations may be useful and rer by the Democratic party. John Coyle: Wilson M'Candless, Esq.; the gentleman and scholar—a bright star in the Democratic Galaxy. The whole west proclaimed him their rep-resentative in the Senate of the United States. David Graham: The United States; looking up in the chase of mutual interest, they have bid defiance to the the senate of the United States; looking up in the chase of mutual interest, they have bid defiance have been enacted during that period. We shall, MOBILE ELECTION .- The municipal election of

have been enacted during that period. We shall, A. M'Allister, jr: May the freedom of electors be preserved, the trial by jury maintained, and the liberty of the Press be secured to the latest posterity. G. L. Drane: Pensylvaniu, her claims will not be the reference of the conduct of t

N. Campbell: Silas Wright of New York and W. During this time the government was as large as usual. They have it their own way, as rendered the money anistocrats so bitter towards him. O. Butler of Kentucky, if nominated can break down any opposition that can be started in 1848. F. H. Coolley: Workingmen-entitled by nature and justice to DIRECT protection. Let Laws be here- sustained the administration with an eloquence and D Dewsnap: Keep down the Banks; so says the who affect to think him obscure will themselves be By the arrival of the schooser Water Witch from the right of drawback.

power to "raise a row." For the last week he has

-fight ever." We hope the police will keep their eye upon this pugnacious gentleman, and prevent him from istarbing the public peace. There was a most dis graceful fracas on Sunday evening, which may be con continual cry to the people to "fight on."

sidered as the natural consequence of Deacon White's

MR WN J HOWARD, was nominated for Mayor yesterday, by the Whig City Convention. Mr How-

Revolution in Mexico.

been calling on the whigs every meening, to "fight on

Fresh Zoll Butter. The editor of the Gurette is doing all in his | The Boster Chronicle, thus discourses discourses tain whig promises, and why they are set whiled: 350 LBS FRESH ROLL BUTTER, just and A Branch Montenant State of other analysis and for sale by ceived, and for sale by HAILMAN, JENNINGS & CO, A BETTER MONUNENT --- Several of our said 43 Wood street. dec 17.

Whig fellow-chizens assured us before the election, of their confident expectation that dir. Clay, if elected would emancipate all his slaves. Now that he is 150 BUSHELS dry Posches just received, and not elected, and cannot, perhaps, afford to be just-----(not knowing how to "black his own shoes," as Mr. Birney does)-and since the Whigs are extensively anxious to raise some memorial or monument to con-sole hint; and as some of them have proposed to raise dec 17 the sum of one hundred thousand dollars for that purpuse, we respectfully suggest that one half that sum be yesterday, by the Whig City Convention. Mr How-ard has long desired this nomination; it is the fruit of many years' manœuvreing, butlike the famous Dead cipate them, (which doebtless he will gladly do.) and Has returned to his old stand, now called the

the other half be invested in land to be justly divided FIFTH STREET, BETWEEN WOOD AND MARKET, among the said slaves, as a partial compensation of un Where he will be glad to entertain his old friends, and OFFICE SEEKING .- The story which is going the requited toil and chattelism. The whigs who trumpetcustomers, and the public in general. dec 17-d1w&wtf rounds, to the effect that Col. Porx had taken lodg- will barely soo the justice of this.

OF The New Lisbon Patriot, Steubenville Union, Washington Examiner, Beaver Star, and Waynes-burgh Messenger, copy to the amount of one dollar, and charge this office.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in and for the County of Allegheny. The petition of John Gilmore, of Lower St Clair township, in the county aforesaid, respectfully absweth That your petitioner bath provided himself with macrats since Gen Jackson's first election, and see Hoppin, Esq, is re-elected Mayor by a large vote.— whether the Tariff policy has not been as safe in The candid ste nominated at the Democratic meeting from the oppressions of corpotate wealth and aristo-chuir. J. M. Snowden, jr.: Andrew Jackson; the "Old Nullifiers, if we mistake not, began in a year or two was generally support without reference to party...... In the laboring master, bere him up in all his conflicts license to keep a public house of entertainment. And more closely around nim. This tribumphant election was the best rebuke that could be given to his slander-ers, and the pure Democratic honesty that will gov-ern his administration will be the ablest refutation of hollow. I. M. Snowden, jr.: Andrew Jackson; the "Old Lion" still lives, a d one roar from his democratic ern his administration will be the ablest refutation of hollow.

the western border of Missouri, has a trade with the titioner is of good repute for honosty and temperance, provinces of Mexico which is estimated at $750,000. and is well provided with house room and convent The editor of the Independence Journal says it will ences for the accommodation of travelers and other

Watsov Neely, William Milholland, Robert Have George M'Farland,

Dry Peaches

IRON CITY HOTEL.

M. PATRICK.

IRON CITY HOTEL

for sale by HATLMAN, JENNINGS & CO,

43 Wood Street.

Worth Having.-The tuwn of Independence, on township, do certify, that John Gilmore, the above pe-after enacted with a view FIRST to protect their in- force which will give lustre to his name when those LATER AND IMPORTANT INTELLIGENCE. reach five millions if they can get a port of entry and and that said tave in is necessary.

It is the secret of his great and overpowering popu-

"Polk" root to destroy the weeds which have been incorporated in it. S J Felker, of Manchester: Polk, Ballas and Shunk;

William Hazlett: Murtin Van Buren; an able statesman and an honest man. His character is well sus tained by his actions whilst President of the United Wm H Smith, Esq : Thomas Jefferson; foremost among the few, who, in signing the Declaration of Independence looked beyond mere separation from Great Britain to the formation of a Democratic Government.

George Spangler: Wm Karns, Esq; the "Meataxe" of Democracy-his zeal in the cause, is tempered by intelligence and honesty of purpose.

y intelligence and honesty of purpose. A M Johnston: Our President elect: may be go sutas he comes into office, untrammeled by faction. David Graham: Wilson M'Candless, E-q; the 'stump orator' of Western Pennsylvania, may he rever be left upon his stumps by the peeple of Penn-were be left upon his stumps by the peeple of Penn-Wither the peeple of Penn-were that is now as a for a neighbor of most urbane dis-possibly be in the hands of any other party. Mathematical and solution to the fact that the Demoorate have sus-to be continually fatiguing you with accounts. Barvis as-to be continually fatiguing you with accounts. We have before announced that the mail communi-to be continually fatiguing you with accounts. Barvis as-to be continually fatiguing you with accounts. Barvis as-Barvis a out as he comes into office, untrammeled by faction. "stump orator" of Western Pennsylvania, may he mever be left upon his stumps by the people of Penn-

A Barclay, Esq: The next President; who will con-test the right of Pennsylvania to furnish the President? and who will not say that James Buchanan is our choice?

and who will not say that James Buchanan is our stat, in Europe. Interse gentences, initial decorrections over the investigation of the investigation of shadow of turning. No man is more beloved by this friends, nor more respected by his foes. John Taggart: We are confident that Governor Shunk will place the "Native" constitution where the Flag was said to be. Description of the parties of the pa

The West demands it, and we must have it.

<text>

upon the benches, flourish a white handketchief in one hand, and apply a glass to the right eye with the other. Every thing succeeded so well that, as soon as the curtuin fell, above fifty individuals, of all ages, forth Every thing succeeded so well that, as soon as the curtain fell, above fifty individuals, of all ages, forth-with mounted the benches, from the smooth-chinned Adonis of eighteen to the sleek, portly, self-confident and after moving down the inclined plane for 9 years, three bright stars in the political hrmament. The peo-ple know them and apprecise their merits. Abraham Hay: Honest 'Old Shunk's Demorts' (Old Shunk's Demorts'), and the seek, portly, self-confident dated, and he is the man. John McClusky: To those who fought the battle of forty-four, and at in forty-tight. William Karns, Est; The American citizens; the gopressed of all nations to share it with us. John Kerson, Est; The American citizens; the dated statistic citizent the world. William Hazlett Martin Statistic to the speck, by invising the poper date the world. Statistic citizent the world has a spirit world pat-statistic citizent the world. Statistic citizent the world has a spirit world has a spirit world has a spirit world has statistic citizent the world has a spirit world

With their hopes? With almost incredible velocity they destended from their unervisible attitudes, to "hide their their attitudes, tor their dattheir attitudes, to "hide their their protection to all interests—exclusive privinges to none. Charles Wallace: A Barclay, E4q.; nature, by his derman, of the first Ward of this great city. shadow will always insure his election. C. It is the first Ward of this great city. shadow will always insure his election. C. It is the first Ward of this great city. shadow will always insure his election. C. It is the first Ward of this great city. Shadow will always insure his election. C. It is the first Ward of the first Ward of this great city. Shadow will always insure his election. C. It is the first Ward of the first Ward thankfully received. The first search of the search of th

Lard; Dried Fruit; Feathers; Genaeng, &c., Purchased. REFERENCES.

Avery, Ogden & Cu., Wm. Lippencott & Son, J. K. Moorhead & Co., Atwood, Jones & Co., Dr. Wm. H. I.E.Z.Amge Paper.
Or Manage Paper.
Or Market Parence, Manage Paper.
Or Market Parence, Manage Paper.
Or Market Paper.</li

an hour to be hereafter announced. As the object of this Society is to raise funds for the use of Missions, it is anxiously hoped that the friends of that good cause will favor the Bociety with their company and patronage on that occasion. It is due to the young ladles of this society, to mention that they have with great patience and perseverance labored in this sense for the s this cause, for the preceding ervon years, and have by bout 9 o'clock at night, the Planing, Grooving, and that means, contributed liberally to the support of Sash Manufactory, owned by Gay, Dilworth & Co., derman, of the first Ward of this great city. His shadow will always insure his election. G M Husselbaugh: George Washington, the Father of his country and of Americans in Russia.—Most of our readers know G M Husselbaugh: George Washington, the Father of his country and of American Independence. Hill lives in the heart of every freeman. A Barclay, Esq: The nextPresident; who will con-engines, for the great railroad extending across Rus-trunk, which may yet be in the possession of some by contributions either to the work, or the refreshments form you it was opened at the close of the fire, and all are requested to send them to the room on the day of books, papers, &c., saved;-this is the best recommen dation I can give of the utility of your eafes. a21-tf THOMAS SCOTT. the sale, before the hour above mentioned. A FRIEND OF THE SOCIETY. o21-tf

IMITATION CROWN GLASS. IN the matter of the Administration S. M'KEE & CO., of Pittsburgh, Manufacturers of of John Loughrey and Thomas Gibson, S. Glass, would inform the citizens of Pittsburgh Esq.'s, Administrators of the Estate of and the public in general, that they are now manufac-John Loughrey, late of Indiana township, turing an article of Window Glass, but little if any Shonk willing "Locath "Native" constitution wiser drag and obles.

Shonk willing "Locath and conversely of the most scale of a strate scale sca inferior to Grown Glass; they have adopted the method