It is well known to the public that many of the Factories that are owned by members of the whiggery party...

Such facts as these are sufficient to demolish all the Roundbacks entered by the reckless process of the great portion of the whiggery party...

Yesterday the Gazette came in a "brave new dress" and made a very handsome appearance. We are always pleased with signs of success among the whiggery party...

It is suggested that all naturalized foreigners who have taken part with or favor the Native movement, should surrender their papers to prove that they are actuated by principle, and not by the spirit of the "dog in the manger"...

My Howard has accepted the whiggery nomination for the Senate. In his own opinion, Mr. H. is a "disturber in his qualifications for a proper discharge of the duties of the office"...

"When for the lists they sought the plain, Did noble Howard bid, Unarm'd by hand he walked And much, in courteous phrase they talked, Of his part of arms of old, Of his part of arms of old, Of his part of arms of old..."

The above is a description of a certain Will. How. and who was in the old time. There is but one point of resemblance between him and the whiggery party...

"Flemish ruff," over a "doublet" the whole armorial palfrey, and a "Poland fur," walking by a lady, and then we have a "doublet" the whole armorial palfrey, and a "Poland fur," walking by a lady...

NEW FASHIONS—White cravats are becoming fashionable in New York, as we learn from the Mirror. The editor says he has been driven to the discussion of politics, comparatively recent matters, by the "surfeit" of the members of the "King of Whiggery" Club...

The New York Mirror has a long article in favor of cheap postage. The Mirror men have "understood" it, they say, by post office regulations, and as letters are concerned, we think a reduction would be reducing the rates on newspapers. It seems to us that the postage on them is already reasonably low; so low, indeed, that we have no doubt the Department looks in that portion of its operations...

THE TENNESSEE CONFERENCE—The Tennessee Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, closed on Tuesday last, after a very harmonious session of six days. Bishop James' address was a concluding address that attracted no Conference where there had been more harmony of action and a stronger unity of feeling. Not the slightest manifestation of an unchristian nature had occurred, and a high degree of spiritual enjoyment had pervaded the assembly...

St. Louis, Mo. The Report of the 11th Regt. Ia. Cavalry...

The Report of the 11th Regt. Ia. Cavalry, in the river yesterday, but not in sufficient quantity to impede navigation. A few more days of high water will, however, close the Upper Missouri and Illinois rivers.
