

The Daily Morning Post.

THOS. PHILLIPS & W. H. SMITH, EDITORS. PITTSBURGH, MONDAY, DECEMBER 23.

Mr. HOWARD—At length the Gazette has turned to say a word in favor of the candidate of its party. The Gazette is as mild as milk-and-water towards the Native, and says it is "an unusual state of affairs to see high opposing whigs."

The Gazette replies to the Aox's "intimation," that there is "something wrong" in Mr. Howard's "regional views," by asserting that he is "a believer."

The Gazette says that Mr. Howard was not the "concocter" of the shameful libel attacking Mayor Hay. The Gazette admits that Mr. H. saw the libel before it was published; that he "disapproved of its spirit and took his pencil and erased or altered some of the objectionable parts."

There is one charge made in the Age against Mr. Howard, which the Gazette has not pretended to deny. It is that he circulated documents hostile to the Native, and denouncing it as a "hoaxful" experiment.

The following gentlemen were nominated for Council: Select Council—James Deane, Common Council—Geo. R. White, John Holmes, John Turbett, D. Reynolds, Saml Jones.

CONGRESS. In the House, attempts were made to bring up the bill for the consideration of which they respectively felt particular interest; but ultimately Mr. Sprague succeeded in prevailing upon the House to consider in Committee the bill on the state of the Union.

Mr. Bancroft's Resolutions—The New Bedford Bulletin says some time since brought a resolution against George Bancroft, of Boston. The charge is, it seems that 90 pages of the fourth volume of his History of the United States had been put into the hands of the printer, and that the printer had been ordered to print the same.

FOR THE TEST. Questions to be debated in the Native American Meetings, every evening, at early candle-light. If the ignorant foreigners who were induced by the Native demagogues to vote for Folk, ought to be distinguished by the sentence of the demagogues who seduced them?

FOR THE TEST. The voice of ten thousand foreigners having been cast for Folk, decided the election in a favor—but those voters, just because they were foreigners, were ignorant of the true interests of the country, and have done so with the greatest calamity, should therefore be distinguished by the sentence of the demagogues who seduced them?

FOR THE TEST. All is not lost; the unconquerable will. The stern resolve, and courage to sever to submit. As this was expressed by Dana, in Milton's Paradise Lost, book 1, page 4, follows that "softer" was a honorary member of the Clay Club. No, it does not!

FOR THE TEST. The U.S. brig Lawrence, and steamer Union and Peacock, are at Venezuela.

THE PARTY OF LAW AND ORDER.

It is clearly that party which has so strikingly illustrated its character by frustrating and controlling, not only the will of the people, but also the law of the land; but also with those kindred mobs, in other quarters, whose delight was to disgrace themselves as in the case of the great national party, to wonder that they should be the party of "law and order."
