

FOR MAYOR, HENRY S. MAGRAW.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MAYORALTY.—Judging from the course of the wing papers, it is probable that before the election, they will do so quietly as the polls, and cast their votes for the Native nominee.

THE AGE has effectively silenced the Gazette, and placed Mr. H. in a position from which neither of the Federal organs have the slightest effort to relieve him.

Many suppose that the editor of the Gazette has a sense of duty to the fifteen wings alone prevents him from making public. But although they do not candidly state their private objections to Mr. H., yet they are circulated by persons who are, no doubt, known to the editor of the Gazette, and whose "confidential" articles are, doubtless, approved by him.

But neither the wing editors have any hand in circulating reports against Mr. Howard or not, it is plain to every one that they do not desire his election, but, on the contrary, they would much prefer to give their aid to the Native candidate.

It is well known that both the wing organs are strongly imbued with the worst principles of the native party. The foreigner who edits the American endeavored to become its organ; the Gazette, a short time since, warmly commended its efforts and shortly thereafter declared itself unconditionally for the party.

It is well known that both the wing organs are strongly imbued with the worst principles of the native party. The foreigner who edits the American endeavored to become its organ; the Gazette, a short time since, warmly commended its efforts and shortly thereafter declared itself unconditionally for the party.

It is well known that both the wing organs are strongly imbued with the worst principles of the native party. The foreigner who edits the American endeavored to become its organ; the Gazette, a short time since, warmly commended its efforts and shortly thereafter declared itself unconditionally for the party.

It is well known that both the wing organs are strongly imbued with the worst principles of the native party. The foreigner who edits the American endeavored to become its organ; the Gazette, a short time since, warmly commended its efforts and shortly thereafter declared itself unconditionally for the party.

The award of the tariff, the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands, and the authority of a national currency; the advocates of the Annexation of Texas, the blockade, the collection of slaves and free trade have triumphed. We have retained by every means the process of the annexation of Texas, and we have now lawfully succeeded, and must now look forward with fearful foreboding to the consequences.

We cut this precious paragraph from the Address of the Wing Committee, published on the 26th of November last. If the signers of that paper could but get a glimpse of the future, they should blush at the obsequiousness upon their false and scandalous assertions, which has been furnished by the recent Tariff Abolition in Congress. Democrats are "awful enemies of the Tariff," are they? If they had been, that excellent wing from New York, Mr. J. F. Patterson, could have carried out his plan for destroying the Tariff policy without the slightest trouble.

We would ask all impartial men to read the concluding sentence about the committee's "forfeiting" of the "consequences" of the election, and say whether, in view of the matter above referred to, any attention or respect should be paid to their false and foolish statements?

Those articles, says the Boston Post, were drafted following during the revolutionary war. A single instance, as a sample of the situation of many of the soldiers when they were discharged in '76, is the conduct of Baron Steuben, may not be amiss. When the main body of the army was disbanded at Newburg, and the veteran soldiers were bidding a parting farewell to each other, Lieut. Col. Cochran, an aged soldier of the New Hampshire line, remarked with tears in his eyes, as he shook hands with the Baron:

"For myself I could stand it, but my wife and daughter are in the garret of that wretched tavern, and I have no means of relieving them. 'Come, come,' said the Baron, 'don't give way. I will pay my respects to Mrs. Cochran and her daughters.' He then good old soldier left them their countenances were warm with gratitude, for he left them all the good he could.

In one of the Rhode Island regiments were several companies of black troops, who had served throughout the whole war, and their bravery and discipline was unsurpassed. The Baron observed one of these wounded negroes on the wharf at Newburg, apparently in great distress:

"Why, master Barton, I want a dollar to go home with, new the congress has no further use for me." The Baron observed one of these wounded negroes on the wharf at Newburg, apparently in great distress:

"Why, master Barton, I want a dollar to go home with, new the congress has no further use for me." The Baron observed one of these wounded negroes on the wharf at Newburg, apparently in great distress:

From the Albany Argus. ANTI-RENT MOVEMENT.—MELANCHOLOUSLY. The Anti-Rent meeting at Newburgh, on Monday, December 18, 1844, was held in a village called "Smoky Hollow." A man from Hillsdale was the speaker, and his name was Bannochie. He had spoken against the proceedings, as is said, and was required by one of the Indians to cry "down with the rent." He refused, and the Indian presented his pistol and repeated the demand. Upon the second refusal, the Indian shot him through the body, and he expired immediately. The Indians then broke up their meeting and dispersed. These are the facts as reported by those present at the meeting.

From the N. Y. News. POSTAGE.—BY SHEET OR BY WEIGHT? Let us no longer be charged by sheet. It is not fair that a small, light note should pay as much postage as a great thick sheet of paper.

From the N. Y. News. HORRID MURDER IN GRAFTON.—A party of 30 of the "Anti-Renters," dressed in Indian disguise, yesterday assaulted Mr. Elijah Smith, of the town of Grafton, in this county, near the residence of his wife. He was severely wounded, and is now in a precarious condition. The assailants are believed to be from the State of New York.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes. But what should not be the subject of a riot, is the riot itself. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the Albany Argus. ANTI-RENT MOVEMENT.—MELANCHOLOUSLY. The Anti-Rent meeting at Newburgh, on Monday, December 18, 1844, was held in a village called "Smoky Hollow." A man from Hillsdale was the speaker, and his name was Bannochie. He had spoken against the proceedings, as is said, and was required by one of the Indians to cry "down with the rent." He refused, and the Indian presented his pistol and repeated the demand. Upon the second refusal, the Indian shot him through the body, and he expired immediately. The Indians then broke up their meeting and dispersed. These are the facts as reported by those present at the meeting.

From the N. Y. News. POSTAGE.—BY SHEET OR BY WEIGHT? Let us no longer be charged by sheet. It is not fair that a small, light note should pay as much postage as a great thick sheet of paper.

From the N. Y. News. HORRID MURDER IN GRAFTON.—A party of 30 of the "Anti-Renters," dressed in Indian disguise, yesterday assaulted Mr. Elijah Smith, of the town of Grafton, in this county, near the residence of his wife. He was severely wounded, and is now in a precarious condition. The assailants are believed to be from the State of New York.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the Albany Argus. ANTI-RENT MOVEMENT.—MELANCHOLOUSLY. The Anti-Rent meeting at Newburgh, on Monday, December 18, 1844, was held in a village called "Smoky Hollow." A man from Hillsdale was the speaker, and his name was Bannochie. He had spoken against the proceedings, as is said, and was required by one of the Indians to cry "down with the rent." He refused, and the Indian presented his pistol and repeated the demand. Upon the second refusal, the Indian shot him through the body, and he expired immediately. The Indians then broke up their meeting and dispersed. These are the facts as reported by those present at the meeting.

From the N. Y. News. POSTAGE.—BY SHEET OR BY WEIGHT? Let us no longer be charged by sheet. It is not fair that a small, light note should pay as much postage as a great thick sheet of paper.

From the N. Y. News. HORRID MURDER IN GRAFTON.—A party of 30 of the "Anti-Renters," dressed in Indian disguise, yesterday assaulted Mr. Elijah Smith, of the town of Grafton, in this county, near the residence of his wife. He was severely wounded, and is now in a precarious condition. The assailants are believed to be from the State of New York.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the Albany Argus. ANTI-RENT MOVEMENT.—MELANCHOLOUSLY. The Anti-Rent meeting at Newburgh, on Monday, December 18, 1844, was held in a village called "Smoky Hollow." A man from Hillsdale was the speaker, and his name was Bannochie. He had spoken against the proceedings, as is said, and was required by one of the Indians to cry "down with the rent." He refused, and the Indian presented his pistol and repeated the demand. Upon the second refusal, the Indian shot him through the body, and he expired immediately. The Indians then broke up their meeting and dispersed. These are the facts as reported by those present at the meeting.

From the N. Y. News. POSTAGE.—BY SHEET OR BY WEIGHT? Let us no longer be charged by sheet. It is not fair that a small, light note should pay as much postage as a great thick sheet of paper.

From the N. Y. News. HORRID MURDER IN GRAFTON.—A party of 30 of the "Anti-Renters," dressed in Indian disguise, yesterday assaulted Mr. Elijah Smith, of the town of Grafton, in this county, near the residence of his wife. He was severely wounded, and is now in a precarious condition. The assailants are believed to be from the State of New York.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the Albany Argus. ANTI-RENT MOVEMENT.—MELANCHOLOUSLY. The Anti-Rent meeting at Newburgh, on Monday, December 18, 1844, was held in a village called "Smoky Hollow." A man from Hillsdale was the speaker, and his name was Bannochie. He had spoken against the proceedings, as is said, and was required by one of the Indians to cry "down with the rent." He refused, and the Indian presented his pistol and repeated the demand. Upon the second refusal, the Indian shot him through the body, and he expired immediately. The Indians then broke up their meeting and dispersed. These are the facts as reported by those present at the meeting.

From the N. Y. News. POSTAGE.—BY SHEET OR BY WEIGHT? Let us no longer be charged by sheet. It is not fair that a small, light note should pay as much postage as a great thick sheet of paper.

From the N. Y. News. HORRID MURDER IN GRAFTON.—A party of 30 of the "Anti-Renters," dressed in Indian disguise, yesterday assaulted Mr. Elijah Smith, of the town of Grafton, in this county, near the residence of his wife. He was severely wounded, and is now in a precarious condition. The assailants are believed to be from the State of New York.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.

From the N. Y. News. THE RIOTS IN POTTSVILLE. Pottsville, 22d Dec. 1844. Sir:—By your paper of yesterday, I am there is a great deal of talk about the riot, most of which, as far as the riot itself is concerned, is entirely untrue. It is a disposition in some persons to make capital out of it, for political purposes.