The following lines, which first appeared in the Reveille, derive a melancholy interest from the recent premature decease of "Phazma," whose fertile fance gave occasion to their composition:-

THE DEATH BELL. [SUGGESTED BY PHAZMA'S "SPIRIT BELL."]

Hark!-more faint and still Than the rippling rill. That steals thro' the woodbine dell; Or the distant strain Of the shepherd swain

Bings in my ear that wierd bell. Wh. 'tis soft and sad, But it makes me mad,

While its tinkling chimes repeating; For it tells of woo Ere its notes shall cease from beating!

It tells of the grave, Where the willows wave— Of a fond friends lips that quiver;

Of an eye that's hid By a leaden lid-Of a heart that's stilled forever! 'Tis a gentle thing, That 'Death Bell's ring-

Like the locust's song at even; But ite "still small" swell. It sounds the knell Of the loved that are fleeting to heav'n!

FURTHER FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS .- A THER FROM THE CANDWICH ISLANDS.—A letter of July 16th, from Honolulu, later than that quoted on Friday, from the Boston Adas, mentions the arrival of the English frigare Thalia, 42 gins, Capt. class of diseases. The following is a specimen of the numerous testi-nonials which we have received. It is from a PHY-SICIAN of high standing in Ohio. Dear Sir—Having had occasion to witness the effect of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy on Mr Eli Young in a case of Pulmonary Consumption, I felt it my duty to make a brief statement in order that others that are or may be afflicted with the same complaint may be benefitted by the same remedy.

He was attacked with inflammation in the left lobe of the lungs in March 1843, attended with acute pain, great difficulty of breathing, and a severe cough, which proceded rapidly to suppuration: and not withstanding the use and application of the best remedies prescribed by our authors, the complaint in a few days began to xhibit evident symptoms of ulccration. In this distressing stage of the complaint, I had recourse to Dr Dancan's Expectorant Remedy for connmption, which had the effect of checking the disease mmediately, and in a few days the pain ceased, the breathing became free and easy, the cough left him, and the expectoration subsided, the consequences of which was that in using six bottles he has recovered is health, and is restored to his family.
