PRICE, TWO CENTS.

THE MISSION OF MR. HOAR TO SQUTH CAROLINA, AND THE POSITION OF THE TWO STATES.

It is well known to our readers that the Hon Samuel Hoar, who was commissioned by Gov Briggs to reside in Charleston for one year, as agent for this state, to test the validity of the law of South Carolina prohibiantage to be operated on and to be attended to in an ting free negroes from entering her territory, has forestablishment exclusively devoted to the restoration of the two states is thus brought in direct collision, and f Massachusetta is right in sending her ambassador to spots in the country, by river and canal, almost at any character, she must sustain him in his rights as any soverage of the year, would offer great facilities for those civing state would an insulted ambassador, even to the ultima ratio of kings.

It is certain that the sovereignty of Massachusetts, in the hands of Gov Briggs and his council, has been grossly insulted, but how that sovereignty is to reinstate itself, or avenge the insult, is a puzzling question. The legislature can pass strong resolves, and the governor can send his message to the general court; but South Carolina laughs at us, and Massachusetts, instead of vindicating the rights of her citizens, has only subjected herself to insult, and retained no power to average it, except the privilege of complaining. If South Carolina and Massachusetts were two distinct and inependent sovereign nations, the treatment of the amssador of the latter would leave no alternative but war. But, by the US constitution, no state shall "engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such immient danger as will not admit of delay." Also a general stock of articles suitable for the supolly of country merchants, to which their attention is invited, at his old stand, corner of Front and Wood to collect facts in relation to the imprisonment of citizens of Massachusetts not charged with any crime.-The facts connected with the present controversy, in which the two states are involved, are as follows:—

In 1839, a joint committee of the Massachusetts legislature had referred to them sundry petitions for the deliverance of citizens of this commonwealth who may be imprisoned in other states, and liable to be old as slaves. The committee, of which Mr. Thomas Kinnicutt was chairman, reported that it was inex-pedient to legislate thereon. Mr. Bradburn, an aboition member, mude an able minority report, recommending resolves to be passed. The teport was recommitted, and subsequently resolves were passed. April 8, 1839, protesting against the laws of slave states probibiting the entering into such states of five persons of c.dor, and authorizing the governor, "where ever it shall appear to his satisfaction that a citizen of this state is imprisoned in another state on suspis cion of being a slave, to employ a suitable person to procure the requisite proofs in the case, to proceed, if necessary, in the opinion of the governor, to the state where the individual is so imprisoned, to lay the matter before the proper authorities, and having obtained the release of the said individual to cause him to be brought to a place of safety." The governor was so to send a copy of the resulves to the governor of ll the states.

Under these resolves no action was had by Gover

By other acts of Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana, and we believe other states, it is provided, in substance, that if any free persons of color shall come into port in a vessel from any other state or country, as a seaman or passenger, he shall, in Georgia, he imprisoned until the easel sails, if he comes ashore; and in South Carolina, Together with the best brands of Virginia Chewing shall be taken by the sheriff from the vessel and imohacco (fine cut,) Smaffs and half Spanish and Com- prisoned until the vessel sails, when the captain is mon Cigars; all of which will be sold at the lowest bound to pay the expenses of his detention, and take possible price for cash. nprisonment. These laws must frequently work great injustice and wrong. It does not appear that, in any case where a colored ee person has been detained under these severe laws, any obstacles have been put in the way of catablishing is ficedom, but many free persons have unjustly los No. 101 Wood street, Adoors above Diamond alley, their freedom by this process. Mr Jucub Burker, resident in New Orleans, was instrumental, in 1837, in obtaining the discharge of several colored free persons. AS just received a large supply of New York and Bultimore Spanish Sole Leather, Upper Leather, Philadelphia and Country Kips and Caliskins, Morocfound at large, to be runaways. It is this police regulation in regard to the whole colored population of the south which, when applied to free colored citizens of other states, going there for a lawful purpose, as seamen in our vessels, or accidentally brought them against their will, creates the difficulty, and operates injustly. The question is, What is the remedy?

Under the resolves of 1339, above quoted, nothing nore was contemplated than for the governor to set Third, between Wood and Market streets, upon any individual case that should be made known, and so far there was no impediment thrown in the way by any southern state. In a case that occurred, af ecting a free colored citizens of New York, a voluntary agent was sent to Virginia, and the citizens there, and "the civil authorities, acted with great liberality." ally patronised him whilst Proprietor of the Waverly says the agent, "and gave every facility the case afford ed," and the parry was released. There was no further action in the Massachusett legislature until 1842. In 1842, South Carolina cum unicated to Massachusetts an act to prevent citizens plation of gentlemen, and from its central situation of New York from carrying slaves out of that state the immediate vicinity of the Banks and Public Offi- which subjected the vessels of any citizen of New in the immediate vicinity of the Banks and Public Othces, offers peculiar advantages to the manef business.
