

domestic policy, or to claim for negroes the rights granted to citizens of the state, on the ground that Massachusetts had included the compact by proclaiming these citizens (12 negroes) who were not so to the adoption of the constitution, and extended the issue of each state all the privileges of the citizens of the several states, was only intended to guarantee to citizens of other states the same rights which were granted to citizens of the state of Massachusetts. These resolutions of 1842, under Governor Davis, passed on March 31, 1842, relating to the admission of citizens of this commonwealth, which were transmitted to the governor, but no other measure was taken by Gov. Davis, and the power conferred by these resolutions.

The resolutions of March 31, 1842, authorized the governor, upon presentation that any citizen was held in prison in any state on account of his color only to cause such citizen to be discharged from his imprisonment, and the liberty of such citizen to be tried and determined by the courts of the United States. This is substantially the same resolution which was passed in 1843, when Mr. Morgan was governor.

The resolution of 1843 passed by the governor, with the advice of the council, authorized the governor to issue writs of habeas corpus to any citizen of Massachusetts who was held in prison in any state on account of his color only to cause such citizen to be discharged from his imprisonment, and the liberty of such citizen to be tried and determined by the courts of the United States. This is substantially the same resolution which was passed in 1843, when Mr. Morgan was governor.

THE HOWARD HANDS.—We think this is the most and most appropriate designation for the man who has just been elected Mayor of this city. He has not only the name, but the qualifications for the office. He is a man of high character, and his administration will be marked by his hands. He has not only the name, but the qualifications for the office. He is a man of high character, and his administration will be marked by his hands.

WAS AN ANSWER?—When the American came into denunciation of the Whig Address, signed by DENNIS, SAGE, HOWARD and others, was it not intended to get 500 German whigs, to denounce the editor and raise him out of the whig party? Why was not that enterprise completed, and how many of our whig Germans, and how many denunciations of the American? These are important questions, and we will have a list of denunciations of whigs which will tell all about them.

HOW TO DETECT A CONTESTER.—In the proceedings of this Republic which lies west of the Allegheny mountains, there is a very flourishing city, which has a large population, and is a very important city. It is a city of the future, and its growth is rapid. It is a city of the future, and its growth is rapid.

GROSS OUTRAGE.—A party of whigs, disguised as Indians, but not belonging to the whig party, made an outrageous attack upon Mr. Christian Craver, of Nassau, on the night of the 23rd inst.
