ALEX MILLAR. it but justice to state, that we consider it a valuable improvement in the healing art. Its power in reducing both chronic and acute inflamation, also in removing spasms, is certainly very great. In cases of obstructed perspiration, it is unquestionably the safest door to the Methodist Bookstore, lately occu- and best remedy that we have ever seen. Several spied by Wm. E. Austin, Esq., where he will be hap- persons in our society, who were scarcely free from a py to serve his friends and customers and the public catarrial effection during most of the winter months generally, with all work in his line, which he will for several years past, have found permanent relief by warrant to be well made and in the latest and most using the Bath a few times; and the predisposition to take cold, as it is commonly termed, seems to be wholly removed. Obstructed perspiration, is certainly in our changeable climate, one of the most fruitful sources of disease, and may remedy that is capable of removing the predisposition to it, must be considered a great blessing to munkind; and as such we do not best tate to recommend the Medicated Vapor Bath.
