PITTSBURGH, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 17, 1845, U.S. SENATOR .- A letter from Harrisburgh, dater ,13th, informs us that the Hon. D. STURGEON was issted in democratic cancus on that evening. The vote on the last ballot stood, Sturgeon 12, Eldred 22, Woodward 7.

"VERMONT. - There is still a green spot in Vermont as will be seen from the following extract from a letter, which we received to day from Montpelier, in that State :- Madisonian.

MONTPELIER, Jan. 9, 1845. GENTLEMEN: Our election in this (fourth) district took place day before yesterday, and we have returns from twenty-nine towns, which are as follows: Paul Dillingham, jr., dem. Geo. B. Chandler, fed 3.283 2,145

Geo. Putnam, abolition Dillingham over Chandler, 1,143; over Chandler and Putnam, 717. We think that Dillingham will baye 1,000 over Chandler, and from 350 to 500 over federalism and all its tenders.

CONGRESS.

The Senate was engaged to-day principally on private bills. Mr. Foster of Tennessee introduced juint resolution for the admission of Texas as State into the Union. He made some remarks in which he avowed himself fully in favor of annexation. and held himself uncommitted as to the best form by which to do it. Though he submitted the proposition he had his doubts as to what would be the best form. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. The Senate spent a short time in executive session, and confirmed several appointments of minor The debate on the Texas question was continued in the flouse ta-lay-Messrs. Tibbatts, of Kentucky, and Chappell of Georgia, having addressed the comand Chappell of Georgin, naving addressed the Cour-mittee in favor of the measure, and Mr Brinkerhoff of Ohio against it. Previous to going into Committee of the Whole, Mr Milton Brown introduced a joint resolution for the admission of Texas, to come into the Union as a State on the terms of the Missouri e; said State to keep her own lands and pay her own delus. Globe, Jan. 13.
