His balmy years of childhood o'er, He goes without a guide. Amid the stir and strife of men His devious course to run, The temper and the spare to hide-God bless the widow's son.

He turneth from the pleasant door,

And from the garden fair, Where with a little spade he wrought Beneath a mother's care-He bears his head like manhood high, Yet tears their course will run, When on his stranger-bed he rests-God bless the widow's son.

Ye say he goes forth alone To bare the eventful field-No! no! a spell is round him thrown, More firm than diamond shield: A mournful mother's fervent prayer So, till his life is done, 'Till time and toil, and change are o'er-God bless the widow's son.

THE PATRIOTISM OF WOMAN. BY MRS. SIGOURNEY. How shall we aid the land we love? O'er dusty tomes to pore? And catch the warrior's wrathful mood From Amazonian lore? No, sister, no.

Amid the strife of angry minds With lifted voice to rove? Or where the long procession winds, Boldly to mix, and move? No. sister, no.

In our own place, the hearth beside. The patriots heart to cheer, The young unfolding mind to guide. The future sage to rear. Where sleeps the cradled infant fair, To watch in love, and kneel in prayer, Sooth each sad soul with pity's smile, And frown on every latent wile That threats the pure, domestic shade; Sister, so best our life shall aid The land we love

Sir—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One. f my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Calonbell county ennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he masemployed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent his place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Pennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated edicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, Bast Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Biuntville, Sullivan County, East Tennesser; I can gen
