SWITCHES. The prettiest girl I know on earth Is Ann Maria Ball: The stateliest in the promenade

The merriest in the hall, Her laugh is like the chime of brooks, Her step would shame a deer, And her check is like an apple In the autumn of the year. Canova never made a hand Like hers-so full and fair; She would have cruzed Mike Angelo With her madonna bair; And I'm inclined to think if Powers Could see her brow, he'd grieve To find a fairer, sweeter, than His brow of mother Eve. There's not a blemish in her form,

No fault about her face---Sit down all day and study them, You'd find them perfect grace. And then, to finish all, her voice-From the sweetest birds in spring You could'n't tell its warble-She does'n't know a thing!

Evil Companions .- Parents cannot be too ca in selecting society for their children; and young men cannot be too choice in their associates. The adage Lines, without any additional charge made for receiv ing or advancing charges, &c. has lost nothing by age which says, "A man is known by the company he keeps." To young men. especi-ally, it is of infinite importance that they be furnishpromptly attended to: ed with companions possessing generous hearts, and honorable, virtuous sentiments. Says the distinguished Robert Hall, in his "Works," recently published by Harper & Brothers: "Society is the atmosphere of souls; and we unne ceasarily imbibe from it something which is either infectuous or salubrious. The society of virtuous per jan 31-1v sons is enjoyed beyond their company, while vice carries a sting into solitude. The society or the com-pany you keep, is both the indication of your charac-ter and the former of it. your Dyspeptie medicine with infinite benefit and satis-faction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One my constituents, Dr. A. Catden, of Caunbell county Fennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at his place, thinks you would probably like an agentin Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county. Tenner-see, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, East Fennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents Ha several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of media cine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agest at Bluntville, Sullivan County. East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.
