The following Temperance Song from the pon of our friend NEWELL, is one of the very best we TEMPERANCE SONG.

Written for the New Castle Washingtomans BY ALEXANDER NEWELL. Air:-"Bruce's Address." Sous of Freedom! see with pride. The care of Temp'rance onward glide,' Till every hill and valley wide, Reverberates again! Till every land beneath the sun, From Ganges to majestic Don, Shall in one mighty current run, And shout aloud Amen!

Then let your banners proudly fly, Your cause is holy—truly, high— It claims a kindred to the sky— Has Slavery's fetters rivers He raised "Green Erin's" fallen child, Has beam'd on man in aspect mild.

And fitted him for Heaven!

Then onward, on, from shore to shore From India to the Labrador. And in one mighty mingling roar,
The Temp'rance shout prolong! Till from the Ocean to the Lakes, One deaf'ning answering echo breaks. Till man, degraded man, awakes, And Angels join the song!

Our case is smiled on from the skies, And oh, see woman's beaming eyes, And hear the plaudit's proudly rise, From Freedom's verdant sod See, from Ocean, Earth, and Air. One spotless banner streaming there, Waving o'er the free and fair, Temperance and God.

"Now's the day and now's the hour," To strip the tyrant of his power, And on our country's blessings shower, And pour them on our youth! Then let us pledge our heart and hand Our dearest rights-our native land, That we will by our banner stand-Temperance and truth!

New Lebanon, State of New York.

WORTHY FRIEND:—Having made a thorough trial of the Medicated Vavor Bath for four months past, in ir societies in New Lebanon and Watervliet, we thin t but justice to state, that we consider it a valuable mprovement in the healing art. Its power in reducing both chronic and acute inflamation, also in rem ing spasms, is certainly very great. In cases of obstructed perspiration, it is unquestionably the safest and best remedy that we have ever seen. Several persons in our society, who were scarcely free from a catarrhal affection during most of the winter months.

Avery, ()gden & Co. Wm. M'Knight & Co. Tiernan & Jones, Jame Murphy & Co. James Park, Jr., & Co. J. W. Burbridge & Co. Wm. Bell & Sons. D. P. Morgan, for several years past, have found permanent relief by Wm. Bell & Sons, Waterman Palmer, using the Bath a few times; and the predisposition to take cold, as it is commonly termed, seems to be wholly removed. Obstructed perspiration, is certainly in our changeable climate, one of the most fruitful sources of disease, and any remedy that is capable of removing the predisposition to it, must be considered a great blessing to mankind; and as such we do not hesitate to recommend the Medicated Vapor Bath.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.
I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form, it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses, the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its
