

The Daily Morning Post.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1885.

SEATOR GIBBONS, the ex-president of the National Clay Club, is working off the bad humor engendered by the overthrow of whiggery, by making violent personal attacks from his place in the Senate, on the present Secretary of State, John K. Kane.

During the Presidential contest the Clay Club put forth every variety of slanders against Col. Polk, and every means was adopted to misrepresent his principles in such a manner as would render him unpopular with the people of Pennsylvania.

APPOINTMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL. Henry S. Magraw, Esq., to be Deputy Attorney General, for the county of Allegheny.

FROM CANADA.—Attempt to Muzzle the Press.—The "Liberal" party in the Legislative Assembly of the Canadian Parliament, attempted on the 28th ult. to muzzle the press, but met with a signal defeat on the Government party.

A SHOCKING MURDER.—The Cecil (Md.) Democrat of Saturday last says, "we have just learned from a gentleman from the upper part of the county, that there had been a horrible murder committed about 8 miles from this place, near the Big Elk Creek."

RAIL ROAD FROM CUMBERLAND TO PITTSBURGH.—Some of our citizens are again agitating the Rail Road question, and would have the construction of a road from this city to Cumberland, in the only means by which the western trade and travel can be secured to Pittsburgh.

INTERESTING STATEMENTS.—Mr. Ellsworth, Commissioner of Patents, in his recent report to Congress, gives some interesting facts. The population of the United States is estimated at 19,185,000.

GRANT FIRE AT WYOMING.—(A. A.)—We learn from the New York Courier and Enquirer, from Messrs. Parson & Brooks, of this city, that they have received private letters from Wyoming, (A. A.) giving intelligence of a nearly destructive fire in that city, which occurred on the morning of the 29th of January.

A list of the friends of President Post, standing him on his way to Washington, and who left Tennessee with him or joined him on his way up the Ohio.

FROM TENNESSEE.—Col J. Knox Walker, Private Secretary to S. K. Stevenson, Dr. J. L. Eastman, Col. S. H. Laughlin, P. Campbell, J. H. Thomas, W. Younkers, Branch, Col. J. G. Harris, Capt. J. Campbell.

FROM ALABAMA.—Hon. D. Hubbard. From Kentucky.—Col. W. O. Butler, Col. S. Church, Dr. L. Tyler, Dan McAllister.

FROM OHIO.—Hon. Judge Foster. From Ohio, from Cincinnati to Portsmouth.—Gen. John M. McKin, Gen. E. S. Haines, Dr. W. M. Mott, Buckingham, A. Shock, C. H. Brough, Dr. Miller, of Butler co.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.—Hon. Judge Foster. From Pennsylvania.—Hon. Judge Foster. From Pennsylvania.—Hon. Judge Foster.

FROM VIRGINIA.—Hon. Judge Foster. From Virginia.—Hon. Judge Foster. From Virginia.—Hon. Judge Foster.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.—Hon. Judge Foster. From North Carolina.—Hon. Judge Foster. From North Carolina.—Hon. Judge Foster.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.—Hon. Judge Foster. From South Carolina.—Hon. Judge Foster. From South Carolina.—Hon. Judge Foster.

A lead slip occurred at Kingston, N. Y., on Monday week, as we learn from the Journal of that place, a portion of the hill adjacent to the Sheep Rocks on the Hudson river, comprising an area of six or seven acres and about 50 feet in depth, broke off in three masses at three several times, and did down the face of the cliff to the beach below, a distance of about 200 yards.

SHOOTING FLOOD.—Great complaint is made in England, respecting the trade carried on by great extent smuggling flour from the United States to Canada. A meeting of the Essex Agricultural Society was recently held on the subject, and one member stated in his address, that the British farmer ought to be alarmed at the enormous extent of this contraband trade.

THE HUMBOLDT PILLION OF THE LETTER TO THE INHABITANTS OF LONDON AND THE ENVIRONS.—The memorial presented to the House of Commons, on the 10th inst., by the London and Environs Association, and signed by 1,000 names, is a most interesting and important document.

THE LUCY WALKER.—The New Albany Gazette of Friday has the following: We are requested to say by Messrs. Weyl, Heald and Co., that they have just received a large quantity of the effects saved from the Lucy Walker, that they will have in their possession a variety of clothing, including, among other things, a pair of fine black kid gloves, also a pair of trunk containing clothing, supposed to have belonged to a Mr. David E. Stahl, and some other articles, mostly paper, also a pair of ladies' middle shoes, without marks, and of fine quality.

CROCODILE SHOOTING.—"The first time that a man fired at an Egyptian crocodile in the waters where they abound, for it is a fact that some are ever seen near Ninyah, though the Nile, at the mouth of the delta, is a crocodile country, and the first man who detected a crocodile, and shot it, was a man named Crocodile, and he was shot by a man named Crocodile, and he was shot by a man named Crocodile."

A Miserly Old Maid.—An old maid recently died at Barre, France, a perfect type of the most avaricious. For fifteen years she had no other occupation than to hoard up money, and she had accumulated a large sum of money, and she was miserly to the last.

A Pallid Gentleman.—A short time ago, a person exercising the calling of a pedlar, purchased in New York about $2,000 worth of goods from various merchants, and went to the upper part of the State to dispose of them, and succeeded in turning the whole into cash. He then wrote to the merchants in that city that he was on his way to settle his bill.

THE MURDER OF A POLICEMAN.—A short time ago, a person exercising the calling of a pedlar, purchased in New York about $2,000 worth of goods from various merchants, and went to the upper part of the State to dispose of them, and succeeded in turning the whole into cash.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

THE SENATE, to-day, passed the bill from the House, making appropriation for the payment of obligations to and other operations, for the service of the Post Office Department, and for repairing and building fortifications, for the year ending 30th June, 1846.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.—The subscribers, Wholesale Merchants, Manufacturers and Dealers in PHILADELPHIA, respectfully invite those Country Merchants who are about purchasing their Spring and Summer Supplies, to an examination of their respective Stocks of Goods.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.—On Tuesday, Wednesday, adopted a resolution, fixing upon Tuesday, March 1st, as the period of the final adjournment of the Legislature.

A STORY FOR THE YOUNG.—MY UNCLE THE CLOCK-MAKER.—This is the title of a new tale by Mary Howitt. The modest clockmaker, who is the hero of the story, is a man of a clear but not a very high intellect, who has managed for generations to maintain his rank in his native neighborhood, though the competition of the times has been increasing.

THE HUMBOLDT PILLION OF THE LETTER TO THE INHABITANTS OF LONDON AND THE ENVIRONS.—The memorial presented to the House of Commons, on the 10th inst., by the London and Environs Association, and signed by 1,000 names, is a most interesting and important document.

THE LUCY WALKER.—The New Albany Gazette of Friday has the following: We are requested to say by Messrs. Weyl, Heald and Co., that they have just received a large quantity of the effects saved from the Lucy Walker, that they will have in their possession a variety of clothing, including, among other things, a pair of fine black kid gloves, also a pair of trunk containing clothing, supposed to have belonged to a Mr. David E. Stahl, and some other articles, mostly paper, also a pair of ladies' middle shoes, without marks, and of fine quality.

CROCODILE SHOOTING.—"The first time that a man fired at an Egyptian crocodile in the waters where they abound, for it is a fact that some are ever seen near Ninyah, though the Nile, at the mouth of the delta, is a crocodile country, and the first man who detected a crocodile, and shot it, was a man named Crocodile, and he was shot by a man named Crocodile, and he was shot by a man named Crocodile."

A Miserly Old Maid.—An old maid recently died at Barre, France, a perfect type of the most avaricious. For fifteen years she had no other occupation than to hoard up money, and she had accumulated a large sum of money, and she was miserly to the last.

CONGRESS.—The Senate, to-day, passed the bill from the House, making appropriation for the payment of obligations to and other operations, for the service of the Post Office Department, and for repairing and building fortifications, for the year ending 30th June, 1846.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.—The subscribers, Wholesale Merchants, Manufacturers and Dealers in PHILADELPHIA, respectfully invite those Country Merchants who are about purchasing their Spring and Summer Supplies, to an examination of their respective Stocks of Goods.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.—On Tuesday, Wednesday, adopted a resolution, fixing upon Tuesday, March 1st, as the period of the final adjournment of the Legislature.

A STORY FOR THE YOUNG.—MY UNCLE THE CLOCK-MAKER.—This is the title of a new tale by Mary Howitt. The modest clockmaker, who is the hero of the story, is a man of a clear but not a very high intellect, who has managed for generations to maintain his rank in his native neighborhood, though the competition of the times has been increasing.

THE HUMBOLDT PILLION OF THE LETTER TO THE INHABITANTS OF LONDON AND THE ENVIRONS.—The memorial presented to the House of Commons, on the 10th inst., by the London and Environs Association, and signed by 1,000 names, is a most interesting and important document.

THE LUCY WALKER.—The New Albany Gazette of Friday has the following: We are requested to say by Messrs. Weyl, Heald and Co., that they have just received a large quantity of the effects saved from the Lucy Walker, that they will have in their possession a variety of clothing, including, among other things, a pair of fine black kid gloves, also a pair of trunk containing clothing, supposed to have belonged to a Mr. David E. Stahl, and some other articles, mostly paper, also a pair of ladies' middle shoes, without marks, and of fine quality.

CROCODILE SHOOTING.—"The first time that a man fired at an Egyptian crocodile in the waters where they abound, for it is a fact that some are ever seen near Ninyah, though the Nile, at the mouth of the delta, is a crocodile country, and the first man who detected a crocodile, and shot it, was a man named Crocodile, and he was shot by a man named Crocodile, and he was shot by a man named Crocodile."

A Miserly Old Maid.—An old maid recently died at Barre, France, a perfect type of the most avaricious. For fifteen years she had no other occupation than to hoard up money, and she had accumulated a large sum of money, and she was miserly to the last.

WILL be sold at M. Kenna's Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.

AN election will be held at the house of Thomas Alderson, on Tuesday, 21st of March next, for the purpose of electing one Freeholder, one Townsman, and six Managers, to serve as officers of the Council and Upper St. Clair Turnpike Road Company, for the ensuing year.

WILL be sold at the New Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.

WILL be sold at the New Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.

WILL be sold at the New Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.

WILL be sold at the New Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.

WILL be sold at the New Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.

WILL be sold at the New Auction Room, on Saturday evening, the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock precisely, one very splendid RED BIRD and CAGE.