OVERSEER OF THE POOR .- We learn from the Ga. wette that the Senate has passed un act authorizing the Councils to order a new election to complete the Board of Overseers of the Poor in this city. We scarcely un derstand the movement. It would seem incredible that there is no provision in our laws for contingencies like that which occurred at our recent election. We have been told that in other counties when a tie between the candidates has occurred, the Court has chosen from the two highest. If this be true, why could not the matver be left to our Court of Common Pleas instead of asking a special act by legislature.
