PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

Dend.—Mr Jackson, who was stabled on the night of the Marili-Gras ball, died yesterday morning of his nds. His body is to be removed to New York, where he has left a widow and several children. The reports respecting the commencement and progress of the difficulty that produced the fatal rencoun ter, are so various as to make it impossible to arriv clusion upon the subject until a judicial ex emination is had. The reports yesterday gave a dif-ferent complexion to the affair from those of the preding day, but we have not expressed an opinion up on the merits of this trugic business, nor do we inter to do so before the facts are brought to our knowledge

The weather continues very mild. The river nced rising again opposite this city on Sunday night, and up to sunset yesterday it had risen abo iwe inches. The ice has totally disappeared. For several days there has been no arrivals, and freight is scarce. The Missouri river by the last account, was low, and considerable ice was running. If the present mild weather continues a few days longer, boats will begin to run on the rivers above, and business will be renewed .- St Louis Rep., Feb 1.

A friend, puzzled at the apparent accuracy of empembulist, asked what his (the interrogator's) father was then doing. In answer, he was told that his father was visible a long way off; and a number of details were given, exactly specifying how the father was engaged.

I fear you have made a slight anachronismfather," said the triumphant disbeliver, "has been dead these twenty years."
""No, sir, no mistake! You appear to forgot," replied the quiet somnambulist, "that it takes a wise child to know its own father."
