PITTSBURGH, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 26.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMETTEE FOR FEBRUARY.

JS Dilworth, W H Denny, Joshua Hanna. Beatwo .- For some days we have had uninterrup for some and sunny weather, and spring seems to have fairly set in. A gentleman whose sagacity about the meather is at least equal to that of the most experienced almanac maker, assures us that the indications of a miki and very early spring are strong and reliable -he finds them in the air, the state of vegetation, and the presence of birds which are rarely seen until much later in the season. We hope he may prove a true prophet, for we do not like the thought of seeing the bright days give way to clouds, and frost and snow.

THE RIVER.-It will be seen by our river Register, that there are 13 feet of water in the channel.

Day Goods .- Those who are thinking about purchesing cheap goods, should look at the advertise-most of WRITE & BROTHER, in this paper. Potter's Final Confession - After much prevarication and soveral attempts to implicate others in the aw. ful crime of which be stands charged, Potter has made a final confession acknowledging himself to be the NG during the season of 1845. For freight or pay a final confession acknowledging himself to be the NEWTON JONES Agent tui crime of which he stands charged, l'otter has made a final confession, acknowledging himself to be the perpetrator of the murder of Lucius P. Osborn, en-tively exculpating all other persons from any partici-petion in the dreadful deed. The black man M'Guire, passion in the dreadful doed. The black man M'Guire, and the two young men who had been taken up, and eequeatly been released, and exonerated from all sus-picion. By accusing others Potter was in hopes to ecreen himself, but being finally overcome by the compunctions visitings of conscience, he could no longer resist its power. He made a full confession in preance of the jailor and prosecuting officers .- New Haven Herald
