The Daily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 8, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMITTEE FOR MARCH. N. B. Craig, J. F. Kelly, A. Wylie, Jr. CLEANING PAVEMENTS .- No matter where you turned your eyes yesterday, you might have seen the bickery brooms flying over our pavements with a vigor and energy that would have delighted the officehusters' if the aforesaid brooms could have been wielded by the proper hands. All this scrubbing of side-walks was the consequence of a notice issued by the Street Commissioner, saying that all sidewalks should be cleaned twice a week under a penalty of $1 for each neglect. Thus has the Mayor imparted his energetic example to those who act under his direction. His honor sweeps out the City printers, the Street Commissioner sweeps the sidewalks and the Councils swept out old Mr. GLENN. Now me go in for living up to the injunctions of the Street Commissioner -- we hope every body will keep the side walks in order, and that Mr. M'ILWAINE will have the centre portion of the streets in corresponding good order and condition. Let the Street Commissioner, the people of Pittsburgh, and the President, make a "clean sweep." A fine lot of Books at Auction to night, at J D Davis'. Freeman, Knapp & Totten this morning at 10 o'tute, for a copy of a Lecture under the above title, delivered by the Rev. Dr. UPFOLD. We shall notice it more at length in a day or two. Yesterday the weather was most delightful.-The sun shone brightly and the streets were full of peopla. On all sides your might hear the hum of business. There is every indication of an early spring.
