DELANY'S CLOTHING STORE."-We were engaged in deviaing some new and striking phrases for the purpose of drawing public attention to this fine espositively the very latest parody on PoE's "Raven." If it were not that the writer takes a sober reality for a theme, we should consider he was a "ravin" himself. By the way, Mr. Per has much to answer for in turning loose all the poetry machines in the country, and causing them to rattle on at such a remoraeless rate. Indescribing the wonders of DELANY's store, the "machine" must have run in a very exact manner -every screw and cog kept its place. President .- FRANCIS HERRON, D. D. Vice Presidents. - Rev.
