

The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.
TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 18, 1845.
PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.
COMMITTEE FOR MARCH.
N. B. Craig, J. F. Kelly, A. Wylie, Jr.
LIFE INSURANCE.—We refer our readers to an advertisement in the "Globe" of Philadelphia, which has appointed W. BAKERLY, Esq., agent for this city. We have done this, as many persons will embrace the opportunity of protecting their families in some degree against the consequences of their unexpected demise. Men are anxious to insure their houses, ships, goods or other products of their industry, so that they and their families may not be suddenly deprived of the means of living. Yet the loss of all these lesser things, by those depending on him, is the sudden death of the head of a household in moderate circumstances. The Life Assurance offers a remedy for such misfortunes, as far as they can be remedied.
The company also receives money in trust, and applies the same as the depositors may direct. A very useful feature of the Institution.
The Packer Line on our Canal, have reduced the fare to Philadelphia to EIGHT DOLLARS. Last year it was $10.
The Steamboat captains have generally and promptly come into the measure of refusing to employ steamboat crewmen.
Don't Forget the Concert at Dupont's Hall, tonight. The fame of M. PAULIER is established and a great musical treat may be expected.
Snow.—What is the use of making predictions about the weather? A few days ago we were satisfied that there would be no more cold weather. Yesterday morning, the snow was 4 inches deep. It has since disappeared, however, and the streets are in a miserable condition.
We beg to call the public attention to the valuable lot of Ground, on Smithfield street, which will be sold at Auction, this morning, at 11 o'clock, on such terms as to render it a desirable speculation. Since that street has been repaired and lighted, it furnishes one of the most convenient routes from the Canal Basin to the Monongahela Wharf, and must shortly become one of the best business streets in the city.
