PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMITTEE FOR MARCH. N. B. Craig, J. F. Kelly, A. Wylie, Jr.

God's Last's Book.—The April No of this beautiful Magazine has been received at Cook's. It has two engaging and a splendid poetry and miscellaneous matter.

At an Election held on the 18th instant at the Office of the Company, the following persons were selected to serve as Directors of the "Allegheny County Mutual Insurance Company" for the ensuing year:

At a meeting of the Board, L. WILMARTH was re-elected President, and J. B. ROBINSON, Secretary of the Company for the ensuing year.

LAMAR BLANCHARD, a distinguished writer for the English magazines, whose productions we have often published, committed suicide by cutting his throat, recently. The loss of his wife, who died under peculiar affliction, induced despondency, and at last temporary insanity, under the influence of which he put an end to his life.

OVERSEER OF THE POOR. I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Overseer of the Poor at the coming election, to be held on Thursday, March 27. The election will be held at usual, at the different wards.

The popular discussion of the following very interesting theme: "Life in an Holy Catholic Apostolic Church," will be continued by the Rev. Hugh Kirtland, A. M., in the large room above John D. Davis's Auction Rooms, on the corner of Wood and Fifth streets, on the evening of Tuesday, 25th inst., commencing at 7 o'clock.
