the Daily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA. TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMITTEE FOR APRIL. Joshus Hanna, W. Thaw, J. W. Lightner Finen.-Yesterday; a number of Tavern and Coffee House keepers were brought up before the Court of Quarter Sessions, and fined for selling liquor without liceme. We are told that Col. DIEHL made a most powerful speech to the Court in defence of his right to make an honest living in the way most agreeable to We understand that the jury in the case of the Rev. E. Smith, could not agree and were discharged by the Court. We are told that none of them believed him guilty of the assault and battery, but some thought that he ought to have received some little punishment any how, and declared that although he should be acquitted of the offence for which he was indicted, yet they were in favor of making him pay the cost. It is a wonder they did not propose to find him guilty of some small larceny, when the facts would not justify a verdict against him for assault and battery. Day Goods .- Messrs. Hampton & Smith are now epening a most splendid stock of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, at their store in Wood street. We refor the public to their advertisement in another column. GER. WASHINGTOS .- A writer in an exchange utging the advantages of introducing Indian corn meal to the laborers in Europe, says:-"Gen. Washington, even on the most stately occasions, at Mount Vernon. could not be prevailed upon to forego his "ash cake" for dinner, made of the dough of Indian meal, placed between cabbage leaves, and baked in the ashes on the kitchen hearth."
