Within the past few years our country has afforded to the Mayor of our city, Wm I Howard; Esq. many instances which should serve as beacons to warn aspiring politicians of the dangers that will encompass them when they seek preferment by other means than an honest adherence to democratic principles. We might illustrate the fate that is certain to overtake those who betray the trust confided to them by the people, by numerous instances—a few will suffice. The time is still within the recollection of many of our citizens when HERRY CLAY was among the foremost and warmest advocates of domocratic principles His love of popular notoriety made him take the side vants by the people. He listened to the dishonest propositions of federalism, he took the Secretaryship with the promised succession as the price of his political honesty; he betrayed the democracy of the country, and by that act blasted all his hopes of popular favor. He has spent a quarter of a century in endeavoring to obtain by the corrupt appliances of federalism. ples of democracy is treason to the people, and that others. he who betrays the one can never gain the confidence
