To meet the extraordinary increase of the business between Pittsburgh and Beaver, consequent upon the opening of the Pennsylvania and Ohio, and the Erie Extents on Canals, the owners of the MICHIGAN, have found it necessary to build the splendid steamer WISCONSIN—both of which will continue to run in the trade at the hours advertised, so long as they are sustained by the public. The Wisconsin principally for passengers and the Michigan for freight passengers, and towing canal Boats. The papers which have inserted the pitiful ap peal to public sympathy from our whining competitors will please insert this also.

THE COMPANY Have been selected with much care, and comprise many slready favorably known to the community. The Theatre will be connected with SHIRES' GARDEN, Now in successful operation, and the best talent of the country will be produced alternately, at both establishments.

Conscious that the Drama is in a deplorable condition, and deservedly so, in consequence of improper, and unqualified Managors presiding over its destinies, it will be our aim to elevate and restore it to the high moral standing it originally possessed, and to accomp lish this end, we are determined to banish everything of an obscene or profine nature, from the Stage; and nothing shall be done or said that could bring to the burg with Mail Cars for New York; also at Chambers-burg with Mail lines direct from Baltimore and Washous. Our object is, to make the Theatre a place where talent, taste and beauty, may assemble to hear the eternal truths of nature, delivered with flowing speech and graceful action; to behold in a mirror, the most secret springs of the human passions; to see virtue triumphant and vice crushed; to smile at the quaint humor and the sparkling wit, the keen satire and the withering sarcasm-to admire the well turned period, and the eloquent rhapsody-the harmonious verse or the nervous prose-to mingle their tears with those shed by with innocence and hope; let these ends, we say, be attained, and the Drama becomes a great benefactor to civilized man. The Theatre will be conducted on liberal principles and no opportunity to afford RELIEF TO THE UNFORTUNATE, a full share of our benevolent sympathies. We also propropose to tender to the FIREMEN OF PITTSBURGH, The Batire Receipts of One Night of each Sesson,

(the night to be selected by them,) as a token of respect their untiring and patriotic exertion to protect of all occasions, the fives and property of their fellow-Good Order, Cleanliness and System, will be ob served at all times. All the new and popular DRAMATIC productions of the day will be produced in a manner never before the basicess, of the Stage, will not be permitted behind the Scenes, under any pretext whatever. This is im-
