

MR. CLAY'S DEBTS—WOMEN'S EXTRAVAGANCE.

A statement has been published, setting forth that Mr. Clay's debts have all been paid off by his friends.

The truth is this: Mr. Clay has not, for many years, incurred or owed a debt on his own account, had involved himself by endorsing for relative who became deeply embarrassed and failed.

He has much more creditable to the whig party in the relief of Mr. Clay from pecuniary embarrassment, than creating a fund to support the extraneous and disipated habits of Daniel Webster.

Mr. Webster's case has no such redeeming aspects as Mr. Clay's. Mr. Webster's case has no such redeeming aspects as Mr. Clay's.

The case of Mr. H. Duns—Our readers will remember that, by his singular manner, an indictment was found against this gentleman in one of the Philadelphia courts.

Mr. Clark Bank—Speaking of the failure of the Bank, the Cleveland Plain Dealer of the 5th says: "Are we unable to give any definite information as to the cause of this failure, or any opinion as to the worth of the bills."

The inebriety of the Smiths to the Bank is partly secured by mortgage on real estate in Ohio; and Michigan, but the bank is obliged to take its own bills in payment of its debts.

AN ARTIST RENTED at Sand Lake, N. Y., who had turned, was assailed by a party of "Indians" lately, who resolved to cut his tongue to keep him from making disclosures.

THE MISTAKE PACKAGE—The person who imposed a bundle of worthless paper upon the Hartford Bank, a short time since, for a package of notes amounting to $15,000, was a citizen of Cleveland, named Pomeroy.

THE CANAL LEAN—The Chicago Democrat of Wednesday contains the notice for the sale of the 27th of May next, at the Exchange Bank in New York, of two tracts on the part of the subscribers to the canal loan, in accordance with the act of the legislature.

FIRE IN CAMBRIDGE COUNTY—The large dwelling house of Mr. James Collins in Mount Camberley county, was destroyed by fire on Friday last. He also lost all his books, papers, furniture, &c. and the family were left with a small portion of their clothing.

Editorial Correspondence.

CINCINNATI, May 5, 1845.

DEAR P—I arrived in this city yesterday, by the Steam Boat Clipper, Capt. CROOKS.

As soon as the day begins to run in the season, a notch is made near the root of the tree, to catch the turpentine.
