PITTIBURGH, PA. MONDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR MAY. F. Lovens, J. Muy, Geo. Ogden.

Porsies NEWS-A great portion of our columns this morning, is occupied by interesting extracts from the foreign papers brought by the Hibernia. Our readers will find among them a detailed account of the progress of the religious war in Switzerland.

RELIEF TO PITTTEBURGH .--- The North Carolinian RELIEF TO PITTERSURGE.—The North Carolinian satisfied with having the lion's share of trade and states share on the 26th elt., at a town meeting of the choice of hours in leaving Pittaburgh and Beaver, but citizens of Fayeterville, the sum of $250 was appropriated for the releif of the Pittsburgh sufferers Thus it appears that the Fayettevillians have not forgotten our suffering citizens. In 1831, when Fayetteville was visited by a similar calamity, Pittsburgh sent them $659.

The Philadelphia Committee for the relief o the sufferers in this city, were to have closed their labars on Saturday. It is thought that the contributions will reach nearly $50,000.

THEATRE.-The new company was greeted by a full house on Saturday evening, and the performance passed off very successfully An excellent bill is presented for this evening. The thrilling drama of the Reat Day and the amusing afterpiece of the Little Devil, should insure a full house.

COUNTRAFEIT $5, on the Lancaster Bank are in her regular jaily trips, leaving Pittsburgh (as hereto-invaliation. The annutous issue is easily detected, as fore) at 3 o'clock. P. M., and Beaver at 3, A. M. circulation. The spurious issue is easily detected, as all the genuine $5 notes of this Bank have for a vignotte aview of the Court House of Lancaster City.

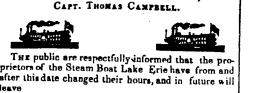

LIBERAL .- We learn from the Wilmington Gazette that the venerable Col. S. B. Davis, formerly of Philadelphis, has contributed $100 for the relief of the Pittsburgh sufferers. The Gazette adds,-John Latimer and David C. Wilson, Ergrs., have given $50 each. Qthers of our citizens have subscribed very liberally for their means, and we doubt not that Wilmington, for her wealth, will stand upon a par with any other place in thus relieving the unfortunate."
