NATIVE ECONOMY. - The N. Y. News gives the following figures to illustrate the manner in which the late native administration carried out the economy and reform they promised when they came into office:

1844. 1845. Increase. Wateh $102,508 $92,932 Lampeand Gas 55,332 71.447 $13,085 All other 403, 838 440.530 36.692 Total $564,678 $604,969 $40,231

Thus ends the Native economy. Mrs Pennoyer swore she never should enter it again; but Scudder offered to marry her, and insisted on her returning. We heard a rumor that the subject of the gaming house, young Salona could not forbear addressing a remonstrance to his friend on the subject of his losses. Although the Count's perfect command the marriage was to have taken place last Sunday—probably this had some connection with the mysterious affair we related.
