The two bankers looked at each other; the guardaman shrugged his shoulders and elevated his eyebrows. Both movements were so light as to be scarcely perceptible; but they were, nevertheless, excellently well observed and understood by his partner, the bigh-dried old marquis, sitting op-posite to him, who laid the pack of cards upon the this face to the cloth, and, after placing a piece of money on them to prevent their being disturbed by any chance puff of wind, opened his gold box, and took a prodigions pinch of snuff. Having done this with much deliberation, he let his hands fall upon his. knees, and leant back in his chair with a countenance
