F. Lorenz, J. May, Geo. Ogden. THEATRE. - Don't forget the Theatre to night. The admirers of Shakspeare will have an opportunity this evening of witnessing a representation of one of his best productions.

The other portions of the bill are interesting and can not fail to please an audience.

SALE of Public Lands .- We publish this morning the President's proclamation for the sale of the Public Lands in Illinois and Wisconsin. We understand that at this sale upwards of 90,000 acres of the rich bottom land of Illinois will be brought into market. The excellence of the lands of this state for agricultural purposes is well known, and their productiveness over every other section of the west is admitted by all who have any knowledge of the western states and

The Wisconsin sale comprises 370,000 acres of the choice lands of that thriving and popular territory. The location of these tracts is considered one of the after this date changed their hours, and in future will best in the territory. Some of them contain an abun-

These sales will afford an excellent opportunity to persons wishing to settle in the west, to choose farms for themselves. To morrow we will publish the proclamations for
