The Daily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA. THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR MAY. F. Lorenz, J. May, Geo. Ogden. "THE ARIEL."-This new duily made its first appearance yesterday morning-Measrs, W. C. Tosy and H. KAIRE, editors. It is neatly printed on an imperial sheet, contains a large amount of reading matter, and is altogether an interesting paper. In politics it is democratic but promises that a goodly portion of its columns shall be devoted to such matters as make a paper interesting to the general reader. If the industry and spirit displayed in the first number are continued, the Ariel will be deserving of a liberal support from the public-We learn it is the intention of the Supervisor. to let the water into the new Aqueduct to-day, for the after this date changed their hours, and in future will regular admission of Boats. Mr. Roebling will receive the thanks of the community at large for his great exertion in completing this noble structure, in the time allotted.
