PITTSBURGH, PA. TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMITTEE FOR JUNE. M. Robertson, W. B. Scuife, R. E. Sellera.

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, Pittsburgh, June 2d, 1845. Amount of Tonage cleared from this office for the month of May is Tas 15,094.572 Tell received for same time, $15,013 80 JOHN FLEMING.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT .- Last evening, about o'clack, Rossar FLOOD, aged 19 years, son of Thon-As Frood, of the 5th ward, was mortally injured by falling from a swing, which was erected a short distance above his father's house; he was percipitated about twenty feet, falling upon his head and fracturing his scull. He was attended by Drs. CALLAGRAN and PALMER.

RUINS OF THE OLD BANK.-We have been shown leave an Engraving of this building, by GILLESPIE, for Foster's forthooming work about the Great Fire. It is a very creditable production of art, and a perfect representation of the dismantled edifice. The book we understand, is to contain four of these illustra- Erie; their course has been and now continues in full

The water was again turned into the Aqueduct on Saturday evening, but only in a small stream, and now publicly and plainly say they will drive the Lake when the bottom of the trank was covered to the depth of 4 or 5 inches, it was stopped again. The trunk seems perfectly tight, and in a few days we expect to see the work in complete operation.

THEATRE.—The great success that has attended the Theatre thus far, has shown that when it is properly managed by gentlemen who understand their business and are determined to preserve the order and decorum that should prevail in an establishment for public agreement, the people of Pittsburgh will give it a liberal support.

Our Theatre, for many years past, with the exception of one of two seasons, has been under the control of persons who were of no credit to their profession, and who cared but little for the reputation of the establishment or the character of the amusements prosented. But we are gratified to observe that it is now in very different hands. Besides their efforts to produce a series of amusements that will be acceptable to the public; the managers adopt the most rigid means to sup- CONSUL AND LOUIS MCLANE. press every thing like disorderly conduct during the performance, and spare no pains to punish all who in

A very attractive bill is offered for to-night, and in addition to the usual entertainments, they have engaged two Ethiopean Minstrels, whose singing and dancing will be executed in the first style of the art of delineating negro character. They will doubtless have overflowing houses during the week.
