

The Daily Morning Post.

THOMAS PHILLIPS & W. R. SMITH, EDITORS. PUBLISHED FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1846.

FOURTH OF JULY.—Many of our democratic friends have been inquiring if we would have any party celebration on the approaching 4th of July. We have heard that any arrangements have been made for that purpose, and as the time is now so short to enable the committee to make proper arrangements for such a festival, we do not suppose that any will take place.

For our part, we agree with those who believe that the 4th of July should be celebrated in a manner that will not call forth the bitter partisan feelings that have so often characterized the day. It is a national festival, and citizens of every shade of political opinion, Democrats, Whigs and natives, should join in commemorating the declaration of our national independence, without having their minds disturbed by bitter feelings of party strife.

In many parts of the country party celebrations on the 4th of July are observed, and indeed, would be tolerated. It is an occasion on which political differences are forgotten, and all join as of brothers in doing honor to the memory of the sages and heroes whose exalted patriotism and indomitable bravery, won the inestimable privileges of which we are now the inheritors.

We observe by notices in the New York papers, that the authorities of that city, have made suitable arrangements for celebrating the day in a patriotic manner, and have appropriated a sufficient sum to pay for Fire Works and other expenses that it may be necessary to incur. This is as it should be, and would be much to the honor of our country if all the other cities and towns of the Union would celebrate the day in a similar manner.

The gray brute of the American is established, and we are not to be deterred by the attacks of Wednesday. Of course we have no reply to make to any such attacks from that quarter. We have never been backward to meet and repel the assaults of all opponents who have any regard for the truth, and which are generally observed by editors, but we freely confess that we have not the slightest disposition to encounter a skunk, even when we are certain of vanquishing it. We don't know which would be most disgusting, a fight with that odious animal, or a controversy with the American; and as we both the one and the other, we have no objection to either.

It is gratifying to see the decline of the blackguardism. There may be times when we cannot avoid speaking of the brutal ruffian, or his total disregard of truth, but we do not desire that he should better himself with the idea that by doing so we wish to get into a controversy with him.

THE OHIO STATEMAN.—Col. SAMUEL MEDARD, the faithful and fearless soldier of Democracy, has disappeared from the Ohio Statesman to Mr. HAZWELL, of the "Concord Freeman." He takes possession of the paper, Col. M. says that he has been seventeen years a democratic editor in Ohio. That his services in the democratic cause have been unending and invaluable, we suppose his greatest enemies will not deny.

It is gratifying to see the decline of the blackguardism. There may be times when we cannot avoid speaking of the brutal ruffian, or his total disregard of truth, but we do not desire that he should better himself with the idea that by doing so we wish to get into a controversy with him.

It is gratifying to see the decline of the blackguardism. There may be times when we cannot avoid speaking of the brutal ruffian, or his total disregard of truth, but we do not desire that he should better himself with the idea that by doing so we wish to get into a controversy with him.

Honor to the Illustrious Dead.

At a large meeting of the citizens of Pittsburgh, Allegheny city, and vicinity, held at the U. S. Hotel on the evening of the 12th inst., in pursuance of previous notice, for the purpose of expressing in a suitable manner their feelings on the solemn occasion of the death of the soldier, the statesman, the Patriot, ANDREW JACKSON.

The meeting, on motion of Mr. McC., was organized by calling Judge Wilkins to the Chair, and appointing the Hon. Ches. Shaler, Hon. Wm. Porter, William McCandless and Wm. B. Foster, Esq., Vice Presidents, and Alex. Brackebridge and Thomas Hamilton, Esq., Secretaries.

On motion of Rody Patterson, Esq., the following Committee was appointed to draft Resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, relative to the death of Andrew Jackson: Rody Patterson, H. S. McGraw, H. K. Kerr, Thos. Phillips and Hiram Kato.

The committee made the following Report: The event which has called us together is a national calamity. In the death of ANDREW JACKSON the Republic mourns the loss of one of its most sagacious statesmen and bravest defenders, which the whole world will lament, the blow which has been dealt to the Republic, and the blood which has been shed.

COMMITTEE. Dr. E. D. Grayson, Capt. Jas. Mac, Hon. R. C. Chapin, Wilson McCandless, Esq., John Fleming, Esq., Sam'l W. Black, Esq., Hon. Thos. Irwin, Hon. Wm. Porter, Esq., W. B. Foster, Esq.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT. Louis McLane, of Maryland, Minister Plenipotentiary to London. He has been invited to the public service without the slightest solicitation on his part. He has been for several years in retirement, if the successful management of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, as president of that institution, can be considered as a retirement. First, as a member of the House of Representatives, then, as Secretary of State, and as a minister to London, he has earned a name as a statesman and a patriot, of which his country may be justly proud.

THE TEXAN CONGRESS.—The Texas Congress was convened on Monday last when they were to decide between the two propositions—that of Mexico, backed by England and France, and that of the United States.

REBUILDING THE DOWRY.—Mr. Jackson, Mr. Hamilton's treasurer, has leased the ground on which the "Dowry" stood, for a term of years, and is building thereon a large theatre. It will be opened by the first of August, as the workmen are now laying the stage and first tier of boxes. The pit will contain 1360 people only. It will be a mere extensive establishment than before.

REBUILDING THE DOWRY.—Mr. Jackson, Mr. Hamilton's treasurer, has leased the ground on which the "Dowry" stood, for a term of years, and is building thereon a large theatre. It will be opened by the first of August, as the workmen are now laying the stage and first tier of boxes. The pit will contain 1360 people only. It will be a mere extensive establishment than before.

The following Diary kept by Capt. Tynock, of New York, during a visit to the Hermitage, a few days before the death of General Jackson, will be read with interest by the public.

[A Diary, from General Jackson.] HERMITAGE, May 23rd, 1845. My Dear Sir—Aware of your desire to know the condition of the patient of the Hermitage in the closing scenes of his life, I write down from day to day, during the time I make him, what occurs of interest.

On my arrival I found the President Jackson more comfortable than he had been, although his disease is not abated, and his long and useful life is rapidly drawing to its close. He has not been in a condition to lie down during the last four months. His feet and legs, and his hands and arms are very much swollen with dropsy, which has invaded his whole system.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

English ministers on referring, in Parliament, to the King's map, on which the one boundary was delineated, and of which they were apprised when urging their demand.

"Right on the side of the American people, and firm in maintaining it, he continued, without intermission, 'I will secure to them the integrity of the territory of which the British government would now deprive them. I am satisfied that they will assert and vindicate what justice awards them; and that no part of the territory or country will ever be submitted to any arbitration but of the cannon's mouth.'

He felt gratified to be a merciful Providence, that had always sustained him through all his struggles, and in the defence of the continued independence and prosperity of his beloved country, and that he could now give up his stewardship, and resign his breath to God who gave it, with the cheering reflection that the country derives all its property and greatness, and to them we must ever look to defend our rights, and never will give them an honest government, freedom from monopolies and privileged classes, and land money—nor paper currency for their land labor—and all will be well.

At 4 P. M., Mr. J. M., his disease became suddenly very violent, and he was taken to Nashville, twelve miles from the Hermitage, where he died on the 23rd inst. for surgical assistance, which was taken from him, his abdomen, which produced great relief, although extreme prostration.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

THEATRE.

MANAGERS, SHIRES & PORTER. STAGE MANAGERS, GEO. T. HARRIS. TREASURER, MR. EVANS.

PRICES OF ADMISSION. 1st Tier Boxes, 50 cts. 2d Tier Boxes, 37 cts. 3d Tier Boxes, 25 cts. Gallery for colored persons, 20 cts.

BENEFIT OF MR. FLETCHER. Mr. E. Shaw is engaged for the remainder of the season and will appear as Mercurio, in the tragedy of "ROMEO AND JULIET," together with the farce of "Mr. and Mrs. White."

Friday Evening, June 20th, 1846. Will be performed, (first time this season) the Tragedy of "ROMEO AND JULIET!"

AMALGAM OR METALIC CEMENT, AS FILLED INTO THE MOUTH OF THE PATIENT. Messrs. Editors—By this article in your paper of yesterday, I feel myself called to justify the use of the metalic cement, which I have made of Metallic Cement, or said it is called, which I intend to continue the use of, as long as I can meet with intelligence enough among those who employ me to appreciate its usefulness.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

On Monday the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., Mrs. Ann FAREY, consort of Thomas FAREY, Esq., of the City of New York, in the 41st year of her age, died, having lived in giving birth to a child, and her infant was buried on Tuesday last, in the Free Burial Ground in the City of Allegheny. Her husband and eight children, mourn their irreparable loss.

Shaw's, Alpacas, Cashmere D'Cos.

83, Market Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. SELLING OFF AT COST. B. E. CONSTABLE, requires the attention of the public to his stock of shawls, consisting of Blanket Cloth, Cashmere, embroidered Throat and Belvidere, and Brocade, at prices ranging from 50 cents up to $12.

CRANBERRIES—For sale by A. G. REINHART, No. 60, Water st., Duane District, je16.

Disolution. NOTICE is hereby given that the firm of G. & E. J. Anthon is dissolved from this date by mutual consent. All persons having claims against the above firm are requested to present them for immediate payment on or before the 10th of July, after which time no claim will be allowed unless the same be presented at the corner of Second and Grant sts., where the business heretofore will be conducted by Edward Anthon, G. A. HUBBS, and J. EDWARDS.

Marine Hospital. PROPOSALS will be received until the 30th inst. for excavating cellar and building foundation walls of Marine Hospital. There will be about 1,500 cubic yards of excavation—200 superficial yards of concrete masonry, laid six inches thick—four cellar floors, about 150 cubic yards. There will be about 300 cubic yards of masonry in the foundation walls, which are to be built of hard and durable stone, dressed to lay in regular courses—all the masonry to be laid in cement mortar. JOHN SANDERS, Architect, No. 10, Water Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. je14.

Valuable Works. THE Cyclopaedia of Arts and Manufactures, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Commerce, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Law, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d.

Valuable Works. THE Cyclopaedia of Arts and Manufactures, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Commerce, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Law, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d.

Valuable Works. THE Cyclopaedia of Arts and Manufactures, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Commerce, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Law, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d.

Valuable Works. THE Cyclopaedia of Arts and Manufactures, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Commerce, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Law, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d.

Valuable Works. THE Cyclopaedia of Arts and Manufactures, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Commerce, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d. THE Cyclopaedia of Law, by J. H. P. GILBERT, Esq., London, 1845. 2 Vols. 10s. 6d.