WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 9, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR JULY.

J. Shipton, John Shea, Robert Bell.

Hose.—Mr. S. M'Clurkan has commenced the making of Hose, at his shop, in Wood street, on an extensive scale. He promises to furnish a good article, and is doubtless able to do so.

Military Meeting.—The commanders of the military companies of the two cities have had a meeting, and have invited the military of the adjoining counties to unite with them in the solemnities of the 17th. This is most commendable. It evinces a proper respect for the memory of the greatest soldier of the age.

We thank our friend of the Erie Observer for his kind condolence, and are quite flattered with the knowledge of the position in which he had "set his heart;" we are sorry the object was not "in the right place."

☞Orator Emerson is delivering addresses in Washington city, on the Revolution. The subject is said to be new and very interesting to many of the sojourners in that place.

Morgan L. Martin has been nominated by the Democrats of Wisconsin as their candidate for Delegate to Congress from that Territory. Gen. Henry G. Dodge, the old Indian Fighter, was the late Delegate, but he has been chosen Governor of the Territory by the President.

☞The sub-committee appointed to make arrangements for rendering honors to the memory of Andrew Jackson, will meet at Philo Hall, this morning at 11 o'clock. E. D. GAZZAM, july 9 Chairman.

Democratic Committee of Correspondence.

The Democratic Committee of Correspondence for Allegheny county is requested to meet at the Washington Hotel, on Saturday, July 19th, at 11 o'clock, A.M., for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements to nominate candidates for the several offices to be voted for at the October election ensuing. A punctual attendance of all the members is earnestly requested.
