FIREMEN'S PARADE .- The parade of the Firemen of Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities, on Saturday afternoon was a very attractive speciacle. The fire on Wilay street, which occurred about 12 o'clock, was very mear spoiling their afternoon's display, as most of the tagines and apparatus that had been burnished up for the parade were promptly taken to the fire; but in a short time the flames were subdued. A little additional labor soon made them look as fine as ever, and at the appointed hour all the companies, we believe, were at the place of rendezvous. The uniforms of the several companies were ex tremely tasteful and near; great order and decorum was observed in the procession, and altogether it was a display highly creditable to the Firemen of our city We endeavored to note the uniforms of the different companies, and we believe they were about as follows: Eagle-White pants, green frock coats, red capes, green hats.

Allegheny - White pants and shirts, black cap and Vigilant-White pants and red shirts, blue cap, and black belt.

Niagea-Drawn by horses; white pants, red shirts; bearing abanner with a view of the great falls from which they derive their name. Washington-White dress, blue hats, belt and star banner of Washington. W. Penn-Blue pants, check shirts, black belt. Uncle Sam-White pants and shirts, black caps. Neptune-White pants and shirts, blue hats. This Company bore a beautiful banner, which had been presented to them by the ladies, previous to their parade. Clipper-Blue pants, white shirts, Kilmarnock caps. Duquesne-White pants and shirts, glazed caps o'clock, M., in Algeo's carpenter's shop, on Washington, near Wylie street. The shop was consumed, and i to a small frame house adjoining was partly burned, and otherwise much injured. The firemen exerted themsolves nobly, and succeeded in preventing the firewhich at time looked very alarming, from spread-

At this fire, as at all others, there was sad scenes and scenes that were laughable. A woman, sick of a Good Intent Past Line for Philadelphia. atal disease, was carried out of a house in the vicinity of the flames. We have not heard whether she suffered from exposure and hasty removal.

A man was on the roof of a house with about a peck of salt, distributing it very judicously, in order to produce the best effect-whether it was this salt that saved the premises we do not know—but he cut a ludicrons figure shaking his little bit of salt over the dry. SIX HORSES AND POSTILLION.

THEATRE.-The Theatre has been re-opened for three nights only, in order to give our citizens un opportunity to witness the wonderful performances of the lofant Sisters. They are indeed astonishing children-they dance with surprising grace and skill, and gheir singing, &c., surprised and delighted the audience. The performances of the Scotch Piper, Mr FERGUSON, is an attractive feature of the entertainment. He plays the Scotch Pipe with great skill, but it is upon the Irish instrument that he excels. Like the famous piper of the song.

"So sweetly he handles the drone, 'Twould have melted the heart of a stone.' To-morrow evening their last exhibition will take
