Go forth into the country,
From a world of care and guile, Go forth to the untainted air. And the sunshine's open smile. It shall clear thy clouded brow, It shall loose the worldly coil That binds the heart too closely up.

Go forth into the country, Where gladsome sights and sounds Make the heart's pulses thrill and leap With fresher, quicker bounds. They shall wake fresh life within Go, student of the midnight lamp, And try their magic power!

Go forth into the country. With its songs of happy birds, Its fertile vales, its grassy hills. Alive with flocks and herds, Against the powers of sadness Is its magic all arrayed; Go forth, and dream no idle dreams, Oh, visionary maid!

Go forth into the country,
Where the nut's rich clusters grow Where the strawberry nestles 'mid the furze, And the holly-berries glow, Each season bath its treasures Like thee, all free and wild; Who would keep thee from the country, Thou happy, artless child?

Go forth into the country! It hath many a solemn grove, And many an altar on its hills, Sacred to neace and love. And whilst with grateful fervor Thine eyes its glory scan, Worship the God who made it all, Oh, holy Christian man!
