PITTSBURGH, PA.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 19, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR JULY. J. Shipton, John Shen, Robert Bell. A DREADFUL DISASTER "ALL BUT."-The Boston Post says: "Just after dinner on Saturday aftermoon, two upper floors of store No. 42 Milk street, now undergoing repair, fell in, and buried a laboring man, who was cosily smoking his pipe behind a pile of bricks in the lower story, and his son, but they were speedily dug out, and happily found to be uninjuned. One end of the flooring caught on the bricks. and formed a snug recess where the father and son were sitting, and thus were their lives preserved in a remarkable manner. After he was brought out into the light, the astonished man stood for several minutes as motionless as a statue, apparently uncertain whetherit was himself or somebody else who had been so mar the jaws of death. The boy hopped about as trick as a floa.

The Charleston Mercury is ever witty, and metimes jocose, in noticing the most important namal affairs. The following is from the last number: sage Canal Boats to Eric, Pa., and Cleveland, O. We do not altogether believe in a war with Mexico except such a one as now exists, a war of sulks. It is casy, it is even economical to suspend diplomatic in tercourse-it is a very different thing to raise and support armies. At all events, Annexation will take,
