PITTSBURGH, MONDAY JULY 23, 1845.

The debate in the British House of Common on the 17th, 49th, and 20th instant, on the New Zealand question, are a most instructive and impressive expenition of British law and practice, and vindicasion of the American, in regard to the aborigines of of Commons, with the most unequivocal marks of approbation, showing that upon the subjects remarked upon by him there was almost entire unanimity of sentiment. He says, a British colony in New Zealand would be the natural master of the ocean, the inevitable arbiter of all its complicated relations and important interests. Its position would command the Pacific, and its vast forest, materials for the greatest navy in the world-there you might con. centrate the trade of the Pacific, and from that new seat of your dominion, you (England) might give laws and manners to the new world. Let those who seem so unwilling to believe that England is grasping in her policy, give Mr Buller's remarks careful re-Section. "The entire command of the Pacific." is now her darling object-and we now find her mos sagacious and prudent statesmen, giving the subject the necessary consideration. They seem resolved to establish what is to be called the "Britan of the Southern Hemisphere." They expect by the propos ed means, to monopolize the trade of China, Chili Peru, the Phillippian Islands, &c. and as is said vauntingly, "give laws and manners to the new

WM. CARLES,

Proprietor of Boliver House, No 203 Chesnut st. Philadelphia, July 8, 1845. ALLEGHENY CITY, July 12, 1845. This may cectify that we, the undersigned, having used for some months, Dyott's Patent Pine Oil Lamps, can with the fullest confidence resommend them, as producing the most brilliant and economical light we have ever seen. They are simple in their structure, ind easily taken care of, and we believe them as safe light as can be produced from any other Lamp, and such cheaper than any other kind of Oil.
