HE subscriber having entered into the stove busi mess in Pittsburgh, respectfully informs the pub c that he intends carrying it on in its various branches at the warehouse No. 124 WOOD STREET, above Fifth street, where he will be prepared to supply purchasers with any articles in his line. In addition other Stoves which he will have on hand, he has obtained the right to manufacture and sell Hathaway's Patent Hot Air Cooking Stoves. This stove is proounced superior to any other now in use in the United States; it is more durable in its construction, and betteradapted to the use of baking, roasting and cooking, as it is heated very regularly by confining the air in the stove; and it is a great saving of fuel as well as lubor. I will keep on hand a sufficient number to supply all demands if possible; I have five different sizes. sizes. I have now in use upwards of fifty in and about that all articles sold at his establishment are made this city; all put in use within six months. Being aware that the People of Western Pennsylvania have been imposed upon by the introduction of new and highly recommended Stoves which were budly constructed, and having soonfailed and become useless. I will grant to persons wishing to procure the Hot Air Stove, the and prove that it is to your advantage to have one.

D. R. MILLER. Washington Temperance House. Pittsburgh, Sept. 19, 1844. Mr. R. Donavon-Sir:-I have had in use for five onths, one of Hathaway's Hot Air Cooking Stoves, and I have no hesitation in saying it is the best stoy now in use. The various kinds of cooking it is calculated to do at the same time, and the small quantity of fuel required, makes it an object worthy the attention of all who desire a good stove.

THOMAS VARNER. I embrace this opportunity to recommend the Hot Air Cooking Stoves; I have used the one you put up for me constantly all summer, and I must say it is a grand article. I believe it is superior to any other stove now in use in this city. The oven bakes well, and is large enough to bake four large loaves of bread Persons of all ages, and in all stages of the at one time; it also cooks very speedily, and it requires HANDKERCHIEFS, very little coal. I think them worthy the attention of all and every other article necessary for a FASHIONA. who wish a good stove; to such I would say, try them BLE DRESS.

DOCTOR EDMUND LANDIS'S PATENT DOUBLE SPRING TRUSS. For the Melioration and Cure of Hernia.
