THE PARTING. BY JAKE P. ELGER. From the German of Gathe. Let mine eyes the parting take, Which my faint lips never can;

Momenta such as these might break Even the sternest heart of man. Mournfully doth joy's eclipse
Shroud in grief Love's aweetest sign; Cold the pressure of thy lips,

Cold the hand that rests in mine. Once the slightest stolen kiss-O, what rapture did it bring!-Like a violet's loveliness, Found and plucked in early Spring.

Now no more my hand shall twine Rose wreaths, sweetest love, for thee; Without is summer's glorious prime, Within weird autumn's misery.

THOMPSON BELL, Cashier. Pittsburgh July 1st, 1845 jy30. (Harrisburg Union copy and charge this office.) Cancer, Screfula, &c. A MPLE experience has proved that no combination of medicine has ever been so effectual in removing the above diseases, as JAYNE'S ALTERNATIVE, or Life Preservative. It has effected cures NATIVE, or Lite Preservative. It has enected cures that have been truly astonishing, not only of Cancer and other diseases of that class, but has removed the most stubborn diseases of the Skin, Swelling, Liver Complaint, Dyspensia, &c., &c.

This medicine enters into the circulation and cradicates diseases wherever located. It purifies the blood and other fluids of the body, removes obstruction in the pores of the skin, and reduces enlargements of the glands or bones. It increases the appetite, removes: headache and drawainess, invignates the whole system, and imparts animation to the diseased and debil itated constitution. There is nothing superior to it in BEING No 16 of Library of Choice Reading, just extremely pleasant, and has nothing of the disgusting nausea accompanying the idea of amalian.
