THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1845. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR AUGUST. J. Carothers, T. J. Bigham, Joshua Hanna. CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appe in our paper, we have one or two remarks to make. We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must s ways be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved

RISE IN THE RIVER.—There was a rise of 8 or 9 and the weather indicates more. The rise on yesterday was from the Allegheny.

GERMAN EMIGRANTS .- We learn that there is now in this city, on their way to the Great West, several this city, on their way to the Great West, several supported as a candidate for the nomination of Clerk hundred German emigrants; they arrived here on Tuesday, by way of the canal.

CATHERINE McDERMOT .- The remains of this unfortunate young woman, found in the ruins caused by the fire of 10th of April last, were turied on Tuesday. | REA, of the 6th Ward of the city of Pittsburgh, (for-She lived, prior to aer death, in the family of Samuel merly Pitt township.) will be a candidate for County Kingston, Esq, who was lost at the same time—her County Convention. Mr. Ren, has been through life face and head was very much disfigured, although her a steady and consistent Democrat—he is well qualishawl which was around her neck, and contained a fied for the office;—as Treasurer of Pitt township for small sum of money, was not injured by the fire. - a number of years, he acquired much knowledge of Miss McDernor, is said, by those who knew her, to have been an industrious, amiable and pious girl.

THE ST. CLAIR STREET BRIDGE. - The managers their hands: of this Bridge have had the wagon track completely cleansed;-this was much wanted-the track was so covered with the dust and dirt, as to render it un. pleasant to pass over. Why did not the managers have this attended to before the great race between the rags of the Ariel and Chronicle came off? Perhaps they would have made better time!!

Unicaping a Cart.—Yesterday afternoon a horse ran off with a cart, which was well laden with white lead kegs. The kegs, as he ran, were thrown in every direction. He continued to run until the cart was at the corner of Irwin and Penn streets. No injury
